The School at St. George Place
Title I Family Engagement Policy
2022 - 2023

The School at St. George Place is committed to supporting a quality education for every child as can be seen within our Beliefs, Mission, and Vision Statements. When Schools and parents form powerful partnerships, the potential for student academic success improves highly.

Section I

The School at St. George Place is dedicated to involving parents in the planning and implementing of the St. George Place Title I plan. Parents will also be included in school improvement procedures.

- A minimum of eight meetings will be held throughout the school year to provide Title I parents the opportunity for input into the implementation, planning, and evaluation of the Title I program.
- Title I parents will serve on committees for any Title I revision work and school planning.

Section II

St. George Place will provide support in planning and implementing effective Title I parent involvement activities. The school will:

- Provide parents and staff information, training, and materials, on effective parent involvement policies and practices.
- Actively support staff and promote efforts that increase the level and quality of parent involvement.
- Provide resource materials for parent meetings, workshops, and take-home learning activities.
- Model effective parent involvement activities and practices.
- Collaborate with the PTO and other community agencies to provide activities that build opportunities for parents to participate in school processes, such as parent workshops and family unity activities.

Section 111

St. George Place will build the school's parent involvement by offering programs to strengthen the school/family partnership by providing materials and training for parents and school staff. School at St. George Place will:

- Provide training to parents in understanding topics such as the importance of academic standards and how they can help their children meet them; monitoring their children's progress in academic skills that help parents successfully work with their children.

- Continue to improve communication to families about school happenings and volunteer opportunities through monthly newsletters, conferences, calls, emails, and social media.

- Provide information, and if needed, assistance to parents and staff in understanding state academic content and performance standards; state and local assessments; and how parents can assist in their child's education. Provide information to parents and staff on the district's parent resources available.

Section IV

St. George Place will coordinate Title I parent involvement activities with other parental involvement programs. St. George Place will:

- Coordinate Title I parent involvement activities by providing mutual parent involvement training and information.

- Collaborate with community agencies to inform parents of parenting resources, literacy training, and parent education.

Section V

St. George Place will conduct an annual evaluation of the effectiveness of parent involvement activities and policies; assess how much parent involvement has increased; and review the barriers to parental participation that need to be addressed. The findings will be used to design strategies for school improvement and to revise parental involvement policies. St George Place will:

- Hold a meeting in the late spring for parents to evaluate parent involvement procedures. If necessary, after review of the evaluation results, procedures will be revised.

Section VI

St. George Pace will allocate Title I funds for parental involvement materials and activities. These funds will be used for school-based parent activities. Parents will have input into the funding for parent involvement through the school planning process and parent surveys. (Title I dollars have been used for the following school activities: instructional staff, instructional materials, academic parent meetings/resources, and after school tutorials.)
