

How to get the most out of College Night

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 8 @ Lamar 6 – 7:30 p.m.

Here are some questions to ask to see if the college is a good fit for you:

STUDENTS

- What are students at your school like?
- What political, social or academic issues concerned students last year?

SOCIAL LIFE AND ACTIVITIES

- What do students do for fun?
- What percent of students belong to fraternities and sororities? If I didn't want to join, are there other groups and activities?
- What role do team sports play in the social life of the campus? Are there school teams or is it mostly intramural?
- What is life like on campus on the weekends?
- Is there a gym, fitness center or sports facility that students not on the school teams can use? What is it like?
- Is there a big international studies program? What percentage of the students study abroad?
- What is there to do in town? How would I get there? Are there internships for students nearby?

ACADEMICS AND FACULTY

- What is the most popular major on campus? Why?
- How would you characterize the academic pressure and workload?
- As an undergraduate, will I have a chance to be involved in research? Can I as a freshman or wait until I'm a senior?
- Is there an Honors College? What are the requirements?
- Are there opportunities for internships in my major?

HOUSING

- Do I have to live on campus as a freshman?
- When do I apply for housing to get my favorite choice?

FINANCIAL AID

- What percentage of average student packages are loans?
- If I get aid as a freshman, is it likely to continue as I become a sophomore, junior and senior? How is it likely to change?

ADMISSIONS

- What are the admissions requirements?
- What are the applications options? Is there an advantage to applying early?
- How long should I wait for an answer once I submit my application?
