Brief introductions about classes:

Chinese Language Studies: Learning the language, including both written and oral practices on vocabularies, sentences; theme-oriented Chinese culture and custom introductions.

Creative Math: Focusing on cultivation of sense of numbers, with daily practices of basic calculations (based on ages: plus, minus, times, dividends) with fun and inter-active activities.

Dance / Kung Fu: Dance will include both ballet and Chinese dance exercises; while Kung Fu will teach some basic movements (though they could be suitable for all kids, we offer them especially for boys as an option instead of dance).

Theater: Suppose to be fun and challenging. Kid will participate in role play activities to learn and practice rhymes, tongue-twisters, poems, ballads, and etc.

Chinese Vocal: Will teach traditional American kids songs with lyrics translated into Chinese.

Calligraphy / Chinese painting / color: Will teach traditional Chinese painting and watercolor painting and the use of Chinese paper and brush. Final art works will be framed at the end of the camp by kids themselves.

Instrument: Students will be taught about the basic techniques of playing recorder. Kids shall bring their own recorder to class.

Artistic appreciation: Meet the artists!
