

NOT JUST AN HISD EMPLOYEE BUT AN ADVOCATE FOR LITERACY

Houston ISD employees are encouraged to become volunteers for Read Houston Read, the district's volunteer effort to provide reading mentors for elementary school students. All it takes is 30 minutes to one hour a week — either in-person or virtually — and you can help a student get on the path to literacy success.

NEW VOLUNTEERS | 4 EASY STEPS

STEP 1 Register online at Connect4Literacy.org

EXPERIENCED VOLUNTEERS

Employees who volunteered in person during the 2016-17 school year can go directly to Connect4Literacy.org beginning Monday, Oct. 2 to sign up for volunteer opportunities.

Those who volunteered online last year, must re-register at <http://tutormate.org/register> and click the box that says "Did you tutor last year with us."

HISD employees are encouraged to participate in the district's Read Houston Read volunteer program. Employees must have written approval from their direct supervisor or manager. To volunteer, please fill out the information below and bring this slip with you to your scheduled training session.
