I know Rogers students are writing all year - in class, for WITS, and so forth. Now is the time to celebrate their efforts. Please gather writing from your children and submit it for publication. Be sure that the student's first and last names are on the submission as well as grade level. We also love to publish art (which includes photography)...but be sure the colors are vivid enough that they will reproduce. If the drawing is black and white, be sure it is dark enough to be copied. Please don't send art on lined paper as the lines will show on the final proof. In May we will have an evening reception where your child can read his/her work. I'm looking forward to receiving entries! You may email them to margaretcrawfordmusings@gmail.com, or you may put them in the box I have in the main office at T H Rogers. If art is oversized, please let me know, and we can arrange a pick up. I'm accepting entries until spring break - if you have any questions, please email me. I'm looking forward to seeing all the great work your children have done.

MUSINGS 2018—Ya estamos aceptando entradas para nuestro Musings Literary Magazine por parte de padres y alumnos. Musings Magazine es publicado anualmente y contiene escrituras y arte hechas por nuestros alumnos. Yo sé que los alumnos de Rogers están escribiendo todo el año- en el salón, para WITS, y más. Ahora se ha llegado el tiempo para celebrar sus esfuerzos. Por favor junte las escrituras de sus hijos(as) y mándelas para ser publicadas. Asegúrese que el nombre completo de su hijo(a) junto con su grado están escritas antes de mandarlas. También nos encanta publicar arte (incluyendo fotografía) pero asegúrese que los colores están bien vibrantes para poder que se reproduzcan bien. Si el arte está en blanco y negro, asegúrese que está suficientemente oscura para ser copiada. Por favor no mande arte en papel alineado por que las líneas saldrán en el producto final. En Mayo tendremos una recepción en la tarde donde su hijo(a) podrá leer su escritura. ¡Espero con entusiasmo sus entradas! Puede mandarlas por correo electrónico a margaretcrawfordmusings@gmail.com, o puede dejarlas en la caja que yo he destinado en la oficina principal en T.H. Rogers. Si el arte es de tamaño muy grande, por favor déjeme saber para poder coordinar quien lo recoja. Estaré aceptando entradas hasta las vacaciones de primavera- si tiene alguna pregunta favor de mandarme un correo electrónico. Me emociona ver todo el trabajo grandioso por parte de sus hijos.

Take the 2018 Fluor® Engineering Challenge

Build a ball launcher and a target to catch the ball.
(How far can your device launch a ball with accuracy?)

Who can enter? The 2018 Fluor Engineering Challenge is open to K-12 students around the world. Students can enter individually or as teams of up to four students. Only one entry per team is allowed. There is no limit to the number of teams that can enter per school or afterschool program. The more teams that enter from a school or organization, the greater the chances of the school/organization winning a prize! Afterschool programs include any nonprofit organization that serves students, including, but not limited to, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, 4-H, YMCA, and Boys and Girls Clubs. Students may participate on more than one team, but each team must use a different design.

What do I do? Build a device to launch a ball as far as possible, and another device to catch it, all from a limited list of materials like pencils, rubber bands, paper, and tape. The farther you can launch the ball (following the challenge rules) before it touches the ground, and the fewer materials you use, the higher your score. Finish your design and submit your score before the March 16, 2018 deadline to enter the contest. Full details, including the building and launching rules, allowable materials, scoring, and testing can be found in the Ball Launcher project at Science Buddies.

Where is the challenge happening? Students can do this challenge anywhere! The 2018 Fluor Engineering Challenge is designed as a fun hands-on engineering project to do at home, in the classroom, or as part of an afterschool program.

When is the challenge taking place? Students may build and test their ball launchers anytime now through March 16, 2018. Entries may be submitted February 18, 2018 through March 16, 2018. All entries are due by midnight Pacific Time (GMT-8) on March 16, 2018.

Why should I enter? Building devices to send aluminum foil balls flying across the room is fun! Plus, there are bragging rights up for grabs. We will be posting top scores on our 2018 Fluor Engineering Challenge score board. Students from anywhere in the world, regardless of location, are eligible to participate in the competition to get their team name on the score board by completing the challenge and submitting their scores. Additionally, Fluor will reward ten teams, drawn at random from the geographic locations listed below, with a $1,000 USD check for their school or afterschool program! Everyone in the eligible locations who follows the entry rules and submission process will be entered in this random drawing. You give your school or afterschool program the chance to win $1,000 USD just by letting us know you took the 2018 Fluor Engineering Challenge, built and tested a ball launcher, and tried your best.
