

blendspace

Safety

Privacy

Security

Considerations for use

- Teachers should consider for creating a class account for student use.
- Blendspace does have unmoderated blogs, so students should be supervised closely during use.
- If students (over age 13) create accounts, they should use their HISD Google address, that doesn't show any personal data other than username and email address.

• Click to see full review •