

Razorback Summer Reading

Submit to library or by email to mchance@houston.isd.org by September 1st to be a part of the fun!

- 4 in row - Milkshakes and Games
- Blackout - Milkshakes , Games & Water Balloon Party

H

What's your favorite quote from a book you read this summer?

O

Download a news app on your phone, or find a newspaper. Read a few articles a week.

G

Find a book from your favorite genre to read.

G

Create a costume or dress up like a character from a book you read this summer. Take a picture.

Read the book and watch the movie. OR watch the movie and then read the book. Which is better?

Join one of HPL's (Houston Public Library) awesome Teen Book Clubs. (See back for more info.)

Arrange items from a book around the book like a bento box. Take a picture!

Record yourself doing a dramatic read aloud!

Draw, paint, or create something inspired by a book you read this summer.

Read a book your friend recommends!

Write a poem based upon a book you read this summer.

Read a book that follows the Hero's journey - create a map that shows the epic adventure.

Read a book that's part of a series.

Create a movie cast for a book you read this summer.

After reading a book, prepare a meal that the characters would have had. Share the recipe.

Create a sound track for a book you read this summer.

