Professional Dress Day

Held once a month on Wednesday to encourage professional etiquette and behavior. Instead of school uniform, students may wear any clothes that reflect professional or church attire. No jeans. No tennis shoes. No casual attire allowed. Tie optional. No open-toe shoes. Dress/skirt length must be no less than 2 inches above the knee.

Students do not have to pay to participate.

College Dress Day

Held once a month on Thursday to foster and celebrate your future college spirit. A college t- shirt and jeans may be worn instead of your school uniform. Support your favorite college by showing off your school PRIDE. No sports jerseys.

Students do not have to pay to participate.

Freedom Dress Day

Held on Friday once a month. Students may wear appropriate relaxed attire to school on Freedom Dress Friday. No spaghetti straps, no crop tops, No open-toe shoes. Dress/skirt length must be no less than 2 inches above the knee.

Freedom Dress Day costs $1 per student.

The money is collected in the morning and goes in the student activity fund. Students who do not pay have to wear regular school uniform.
