10 Brimary Years Programme Reasons

why the IB Primary Years Programme (PYP) is ideal for students to become active, lifelong learners

2

It encourages students to inquire

The FTP fosters natural custodity and learning in creative, supportive and collaborative environments. Understanding a complex and interdependent world

PTP students create meaning for themselves and build understanding through exploring real world issues. e^o

PYP students are confident communicators

PVP students learn to communicate in a variety of ways and in more than one language.

4

Learning how to learn

PTP stadents work colleges above; with teachers and other students to plan, present and assess their some borning. 5

It encourages international-mindedness

Collaboration and understanding of their own and other cultures are an important focus of the PYP — students learn how to be respectful and open-minded.

6

Seeing things from different perspectives

> PYP students use critical and creative thinking to develop knowledge, understanding and skills within and across subject areas.

7

Students take action

PTP students believe they are able to prove and succeed. They make appropriate choices and take responsibility for their actions.

8

Thinking about issues

Creative learning gives shadonts the agifty used transplantion to respond to new and unexpected shadonges and opportunities in an increasingly and allowed and recommendations.

10

Caring and responsible citizens

Statents can expense ideas and opinions, and they can progung solutions that make a difference in

9

It involves the whole school learning community

Together we celebrate our common humanity and the belief that education can help to build a better and more procedul world.

Based on IB research, www.ibo.org/research

Characterist Barrierania, Department JCD 2011