

English I/Reading I

Jasmine Price

My Welcome: Welcome to English I/Reading I with Coach Jas! It is my distinct pleasure to be your instructor this semester! This course will provide you with the tools to help you be successful in high school, college and after. Take this course seriously because it could be one of the most important courses you take throughout your academic career. One of my goals this semester is to help you feel confident as you embark upon the rest of your studies. I will guide you, cheer for you, coach you, and hold you accountable. This class as well as your other courses will require time management.

About Me: This is my second year teaching English I/Reading I for Houston ISD and at Jack Yates HS. I am a teacher during the school period and after school, I help co-sponsor our Jack Yates HS Student Council and I head coach the Varsity Girls Soccer team. Prior to delving into education, I was an Area Manager for AT&T for nearly a decade as well as an entrepreneur/investor. I take extreme pride in teaching a curriculum that has realistic examples that are tangible for students to grasp. I look forward to reaching you where you are and helping to get to where you need to go. Let's have a stellar year, Lions.

In the Event You Are Absent: Please refer to the active Google Assignment document for missed assignments and make-up work.

Here is the link: https://bit.ly/jy\_english1

You will have (3) school days from the date you were first absent to make up any missed assignments from an excused absence. Unexcused absence work will not be accepted.

Course Description: English I/Reading I blends written, oral, and graphic communication in a career-based environment. Careers in the global economy require individuals to be creative and have a strong background in computer and technology applications, a strong and solid academic foundation, and a proficiency in professional oral and written communication. Within this context, students will be expected to develop and expand the ability to write, read, edit, speak, listen, apply software applications, manipulate computer graphics, and conduct Internet research.

Course Objective: I hope to increase your appreciation of reading and writing by exposing you to as much diverse texts as possible. I want you to leave this class feeling confident about your academic abilities and to truly enjoy reading and writing. By the end of this course, you will be able to:

- Monitor your comprehension and utilize reading strategies that help increase your individual comprehension.
- Write academically and be able to express your thoughts by engaging in academic discourse with your peers.
- Develop strong study skills that will help you be successful in the classroom.
- Analyze characteristics of effective goals and create personal goals for your education and future career.
- Strengthen your research and writing skills through reasoning, intellectual curiosity, and the use of technology.
- Increase problem solving skills to find effective and actionable solutions.

nature of learning and represents the highest possible expression of shared values among the members of the school community. The core values underlying and reflected in the Honor Code are:

- Academic honesty is demonstrated by students when the ideas and the writing of others are properly cited; students submit their own work for tests and assignments without unauthorized assistance; students do not provide unauthorized assistance to others; and students report their research or accomplishments accurately
- Respect for others and the learning process to demonstrate academic honesty
- Trust in others to act with academic honesty as a positive community-building force in the school
- Responsibility is recognized by all to demonstrate their best effort to prepare and complete academic tasks
- Fairness and equity are demonstrated so that every student can experience an academic environment that is free from the injustices caused by any form of intellectual dishonesty
- Integrity of all members of the school community as demonstrated by a commitment to academic honesty and support of our quest for authentic learning.

Policy on Electronic Devices: Once students enter the classroom, all electronic devices should be silenced and put away such that they are not visible. These include cell phones, headphones, earbuds, etc. Students may only use electronic devices if authorized by the teacher. Teachers may use electronic devices for instruction purposes at their discretion.

Make Up and Late Work: Homework and daily class work should be submitted in a timely manner as much as possible. Evaluation on late work will be done on a case-by-case basis at the discretion of the teacher. Make-up work will not be made-up during class time; this time will be reserved for planned instruction. It is the responsibility of the student to get make-up work and to return it to the instructor in a timely manner. The assignment link for missed work is: https://bit.ly/jy\_english1 . The student has (3) school days from the first date of absence to complete the work. No work from unexcused absences will be accepted.

Student Success: Additional time will be required for written assignments. The assignments provided will help you use your study hours wisely. Successful completion of this course requires a combination of the following:

- Reading the textbook
- Attending class in person and/or online
- Completing assignments
- Participating in class activities

There is no short cut for success in this course; it requires reading (and probably re-reading) and studying the material using the course objectives as a guide.
