Weekly Highlights

This week included increasing awareness about various types of disabilities. From Cerebral Palsy to Orthotics, we celebrated inclusion awareness and health each day this week. Faculty, students, and staff wore specific colors and our PSI students recorded announcements school-wide.

We also celebrated all our teachers' hard work and dedication in honor . Our amazing PTO provided a multicultural array of lunch options and sweet treats to our faculty and staff in honor of Teacher Appreciation Week. A big shout out to our awesome PTO and teachers for all that you do for our school! Today, our National Academic Quiz Tournaments (NAQT) Quiz Bowl team flies out to Chicago to compete in the national competition. Good luck, Rams!!

Tonight, the T.H. Rogers PTO hosted our Annual Family Supper and Silent Auction, where we have the opportunity to meet incoming students and their parents and enjoy a relaxed evening with our Ram community.
