Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.
Day

(January 15, 1929 – April 4, 1968)

King's 1967 speech –

'What is your life's blueprint':

"Don't just set out to do a good job - Set out to do such a good job that the living, the dead or the unborn couldn't do it any better."

King was an American Christian Minister and Activist known for advancing civil rights through nonviolence and civil disobedience. He is still remembered today for his unmatched power of words to inspire communities and movements.

- Renowned spokesperson and leader in the Civil rights Movement from 1955
- Won the Nobel Peace Prize in 1964 for combating racial inequality
