The graphic features a torn paper effect at the top and bottom. The background is a light blue sky with a green grassy field at the bottom. Various butterflies are scattered throughout: a black and yellow butterfly in the top right, a blue butterfly on the left, a white and black butterfly in the middle right, a red and black butterfly in the bottom left, and a white and black butterfly in the bottom center. There are also several flowers, including pink and white blossoms in the top right, yellow flowers in the bottom left and right, and white daisies in the bottom center.
