Course Description:

This course is designed to increase understanding of United States History from 1491 to the present. The goals of the class are to develop: 1. an understanding of some of the principal themes in early and modern U.S. History 2. an ability to analyze and to express understanding in writing and other forms of communication.

AP U.S. History is a rigorous, fast paced, and challenging course designed to be the equivalent of a college freshman U.S. History survey course. Students should possess strong reading and writing skills and be willing to devote substantial time to study and the completion of class reading assignments.

Emphasis is placed on class discussion, the use of primary and secondary sources, critical reading and analytical writing. This course prepares students to take the College Board Advanced Placement United States History examination and possibly earn college credit. (May 5, 2023)

Mastery of content and grades are important, but of equal value is:

- *Critical reading of primary and secondary sources
- *Understanding and developing the historical thinking skills
- *Using the historical themes to connect to broader concepts
- *Constructing and evaluating historical interpretations
- *Using historical knowledge as a guide to present understanding and action
- *Empathizing with the past

Materials Needed in Class EVERY DAY:

- * Laptop - You will not be allowed to enter class without your laptop
- * Notebook - to be used for APUSH only
- * Pen – Work submitted in pencil won't be accepted

GRADING AND TEXTS

Grading

Cycle grades are determined as follows:

Major Grades (70%): Unit Tests, Writing Assessments, Projects

Minor Grades (30%): Classwork, Quizzes, Canvas Assignments, Homework, Participation, etc.

Retake Policy

Major Grades: Retake documentation must be completed and submitted at the time of the retake. The maximum grade for a retake assessment is 70%.

Late Work Policy

The pace of this course is accelerated and missing class could cause problems. If you have to miss due to illness, fieldtrip, or UIL activity check Canvas for assignments and due dates.

Minor Grades: No late work will be accepted.

Make-Up Grades: If you are absent, it is your responsibility to check Canvas for missed assignments. Arrangements for submitting make-up grades must be made during tutorials. The maximum amount of time that will be allowed to make-up minor and major grades is ONE WEEK after your return to class.

Texts

America's History 8th Edition by Henretta (E-textbook accessible through Canvas)

United States History by Newman & SchmalBach (Classroom textbook)

Accountability and Independent Learning

You are responsible for reading and studying the textbook as well as all other assigned readings. A calendar will be provided at the beginning of each cycle to inform you of important deadlines regarding reading material and assessments. While most of the material will be addressed through class discussions, debates, or group work, some of it will be covered through independent learning. You are responsible for all material assigned.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Behavior: Rules for this class are listed below.

1. Arrive to class on time with required materials
2. Follow all instructions
3. Be respectful to the teacher
4. Be respectful to your classmates
5. NO FOOD, DRINKS OR CELLPHONES IN CLASS

Classroom Expectations: This is a demanding course that requires a fast pace to ensure that the entire curriculum is covered. This course will demand that students are on task and engaged during every lesson.

The conditions below will be enforced during the following activities:

Individual Work: Students will not talk unless asking a question for help related to the directions. Students will do their own work and not copy off their classmates. Students will make use of their class time by working on the assignment.

Direct Teacher Instruction: Students will not talk unless asking a question. When asked to participate, students will raise their hand and share out respectfully. Students will make use of their class time by taking notes and listening to the teacher.

Partner or Group Work: Students will talk at a reasonable inside level volume about the assignment. Students will contribute equally to the activity. Students will make use of their class time by collaborating with their peers to master the learning objective.

Quizzing or Testing: Students will not talk at all. Students will place ALL belongings at the front of the classroom, including cellphones & electronic devices. Students will make use of their class time by focusing on the test and completing the assessment to the best of their ability.

Taking Notes and Organization

Taking notes is a required and independent activity for this course. Notes are taken at home over the chapters in the textbook as well as from other readings assigned. Notes will be taken in an APUSH spiral notebook. This spiral is to be used for only APUSH. The only requirement is that the entire chapter must be covered. The same is true for notes completed over Crash Course assignments and Study Guides.
