

Magnet Programs – Current Statistics

This report is offered to provide greater transparency and clarity around the Magnet application process. It is our belief that providing parents more information have about the relative difficulty of gaining a seat to a specific program, the more informed their choices can be and the more realistic their expectations.

Explanation

Magnet Programs - Current Statistics
As of April 21, 2015 at 11:00 AM
School/Grade	1 Students Currently Offered a Seat	2 Students Currently on Wait List	3 Total Applications	4 Total Students Offered a Seat To-Date	5 Applications per Seat	6 Acceptances per Seat	7 Percent of Students Offered a Seat
Arabic Immersion Magnet School	132	145	450	248	3.4	1.9	55%

Column 1

The number of seats currently being held for students. These students would either have accepted the seats or have not yet responded “yes” or “no.”

Column 2

The number of applications currently on the wait list. These students are still waiting to see whether a slot will open up on the accepted list. Other students may have been on the wait list and have either declined their position or moved to the accepted list.

Column 3

The number of students who have submitted an application this year. This may, in some cases, include students who did not meet the entry qualifications.

Column 4

The number of students who were offered a seat. This number is always larger than the number in Column 1 as some students will have declined offers.

Column 5

The average number of applications for every seat offered. Column 3 divided by Column 1.

Column 6

The average number of offers for every available seat. Column 4 divided by Column 1.

Column 7

The percent of all students applying who were offered a seat. Column 4 as a percentage of Column 3.
