ABOUT HOUSTON BATTALION

The University of Houston hosts the 2nd most ethnically diverse campus in the nation, according to US News & World report. The campus' Army ROTC program is no different. UH Army ROTC is recognized for its diversity and ability to produce the future leaders of our United States Army. The UH Army ROTC program prides itself on being a pathway to success, offering unmatched leadership training to our cadets as they transition into the world's most significant fighting force. UH Army ROTC has expanded over 70 years since its inception in 1948, as being the host institution to nine additional top-tier collegiate institutions to include Rice, Texas Southern, Houston Baptist, and University of Saint Thomas. Our cadre takes pride in producing an engaging and educationally stimulating program committed to the mission of developing the leaders of tomorrow.
