Dedication

In appreciation of the loyal support that he has always rendered to the students and faculty; the jolly spirit he always maintained; the cheerful mood with which he enters into every task; and because he is beloved by all who know him, we the Annual staff of 1937, dedicate this volume VI of The Buffalo to "Pops" Roy Glasgow.

Charles H. Milby Senior High School

J. O. WEBB
Director of senior high schools

W. I. STEVENSON
Principal Milby High School

Milby High School History

In 1927, exactly one decade ago, 250 students of the old Harrisburg High School tucked their books under their arms and marched with light hearts the 12 blocks down Broadway to cross over the threshold of Charles H. Milby Senior High School, thus beginning a new era in the education, happiness, and comfort of high school students of East End.

Principal W. I. Stevenson marched with this merry group, as did a few of the present teachers.

Milby was not destined to remain a small school, and each year she grew in stature and grace and achievement emerging victorious first in one field and then another. In 1936, when the last school bond issue was voted to match a gift in government funds, Milby was allotted means to build six new classrooms, a new track, an athletic field, a cafeteria enlargement, two new outbuildings, a rifle range, and a gymnasium that in size and splendor equals that of any in the city.

A glance back over these brief 10 years shows that Milby has grown from the original 250 students to 1334. She has distinguished herself in Interscholastic honors, social status, and in athletic prowess in the city and state. Ten classes of graduates have gone forth from her doors to carry on her traditions and uphold her honor.

Now 226 graduates of 1937 prepare to step into the highway of manhood and womanhood, and take on the yoke of citizenship. Because of "Dear Old Milby High" they are better able to cope with the problems of life, and due to their associations with their teachers, school mates and each other they will cherish with honor affectionate memories of their high school alma mater.

Milby R. O. T. C. Battalion

The R. O. T. C. unit at Milby was organized in 1930 by Capt. John Lee, of the Infantry Reserves, with 35 cadets who had to purchase all equipment and uniforms—except rifles. In the fall of 1935, the government assumed control of all R. O. T. C. units in the city with Major Gene R. Mauger, a regular officer of the cavalry, as P. M. S. & T. and Major Geo. D. Bronson as Commandant of cadets at Milby. The government furnished all uniforms and equipment.

The number of cadets has now been increased to 190 with Lieutenant Jimmy B. Miles of the 124th Cavalry serving as Commandant of cadets since January 1936. The first Battalion was formed in the spring of 1936 with Cadet Edward Loeffler as Commander. The Milby Battalion is one of five which together form the Houston Infantry Regiment, Junior Unit. In the Fall of 1937, Cadet Major Edward Loeffler was promoted to Colonel and placed in command of the entire regiment.

At present, the Milby Battalion under the command of Major Wayne Stanford, consists of a Battalion headquarters, two rifle companies, and a band. The Battalion cadet headquarters staff consist of Major Wayne Stanford, commanding; Captain Franklin Cone, publicity officer; 1st Lt. Harry Dreyfus, Battalion supply officer; 2nd Lt. Claude Brisbay, adjutant; Cadet 2nd Lt. Joseph Barnett, executive officer. Company "K" Staff consists of Captain Durwood Levia, commanding; 2nd Lt. Bill Weems, 1st platoon leader; 2nd Lt. Herbert Kuhn, 2nd platoon leader. Company "L" staff consists of Captain Wesley Carley, commanding; 1st Lt. Harry Collins, second in command; 2nd Lt. Harry Board, 1st platoon leader. Band offices are Captain R. J. Fenzl, commanding; 1st Lt. Cecil Brewer, second in command; and 2nd Lt. Robert Blunt, band officer.

What After High School?

Let Massey introduce you to an office position in keeping with your educational background. We do not promise to make of you a business executive; but we will train you for, and place you in, a starting position where your talents and education will open to you opportunities without limit.

We are receiving constantly more calls from employers for Massey graduates than we have available to fill the very desirable office positions open to them.

We invite your investigation of our record in starting Milby High School graduates on the road to success.

joins other Texas institutions in welcoming the men and women of the class of 1937 to the tasks and the opportunities of the modern world in which they live. May they find their graduation a true commencement in the original meaning of the word—the commencement of a life filled with that sort of work which becomes a pleasure and with usefulness to their families, their communities, their State.
