FOREWORD

The staff of the Buffalo presents to you this story of places, events, individuals, and groups that have been of interest to you during the school year of 1952-1953.

As the years pass, and from time to time you review these pages, our wish is that this record will serve as a source-book of happy memories, a pleasant reminder of the days when "We Were Young and Gay."

But this I know, where'er I go,
Thy gentle image, Yarrow!
Will dwell with me, to heighten joy,
And cheer my mind in sorrow.

Wordsworth — Yarrow Visited

Editor-in-Chief
Rita Rae Nelkin
In every heart there is a Memory Room, a sacred recess to which in times of stress, in the rush of daily life, or in the quiet lull of eventide the mind instinctively turns for rest, inspiration, or consolation. Since we believe that after three years spent within the walls and among the environs of Milby there have been made upon the mind of every student impressions which he would like to retain, to see expressed in tangible form, the staff has endeavored to include in the pictorial theme of this volume all the places and scenes we think you will like best to remember throughout the years.

... And when the stream
Which overflowed the soul was passed away,
A consciousness remained that it had left,
Deposited upon the silent shore
Of memory, images and precious thoughts,
That shall not die, and cannot be destroyed.

Wordsworth — Excursion
