THE BUFFALO
of
Charles H. Milby High School
Houston, Texas

Vol. XX 1954

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We, the Annual Staff and the Sponsors, gratefully acknowledge the help of Mrs. Marjorie Spencer and the Art Department; Mr. Richard M. Niemi, of the Drama Department; Mrs. Margaret Wisdom, of Publications; the Administrative Staff; the Faculty; and Mr. Harold G. Bishop, our photographer, of the Bishop Company.
A poet once said: "A man's real possession is in his memory. In nothing else is he rich, in nothing else is he poor."

We, the staff, in presenting to you this twentieth volume of the Buffalo, hope to add to the richness of your life by recording for you a panorama of your 1953-1954 school term. When you leaf through this book and see again places, events, teachers, and pupils march across these pages, our sincere wish is that your memories of Milby will be as sweet as the music found in the theme of this annual.

BLANQUIETA HOGUE
Editor-in-Chief
DEDICATION

Since the beginning of the human race, music has been one of man's highest inspirations. The "vibrations of deathless music" have been like a "sky-born" voice calling him from his workaday tasks to the sublime experiences of the soul. Music, the highest of the fine arts, performs a great ministry to the welfare of mankind. Its power is felt in every phase of life.

"One men with a dream, at pleasure,
Shall go forth and conquer a crown;
And three with a new song's measure
Can trample an empire down."

Because of the joy, beauty, and power expressed in this universal language through its influence upon the world in general and upon our Milby world in particular, we dedicate this volume of the Buffalo to... MUSIC.

Dear Fellow Teachers and Students of the Great Buffalo Herd:

We are still on the march, crossing back and forth the great prairies of time, leaving a vivid trail made by the many fine accomplishments of the past. We are experiencing new grounds this year with the hope of making a still more indelible impression by our many achievements. Everyone can help by following his leaders in the various activities of the school.

As Buffaloes, the largest game animals in America, let us face the storms ahead bravely and fearlessly, each doing his part to make a greater and more glorious record than in the past for Milby High School.

Congratulations to our fine faculty sponsors and the entire Buffalo staff for the beautiful record herein portrayed in this, our 1953-1954 school annual.

MRS. NELL WALLACE AND MR. ALVIN P. SCHOENFIELD. Sponsors

The Allied Youth, a national organization, is the largest club in Milby. In the spring of 1948 Mr. W. I. Stevenson, while attending National Education conferences, became interested in the A. Y. and asked a representative from the Washington office to come to present the work of the organization to the student body. In April of 1949, when the club was finally organized, Mrs. Nell Wallace became its sponsor. The symbols which compose the A. Y. emblem are the torch, the shield, the wreath and the golden cord. The purpose of the A Y. is alcohol education and alcohol-free recreation.

In the fall of 1952 the Bisonettes was organized under the sponsorship of Mrs. Margaret Whalen. The purposes of the club is to foster general welfare of the school, to support athletic teams, and to improve school spirit.

With the aid of the Ragnots they hope to give a banquet next spring for all the spring athletic teams. At Christmas they furnish Christmas baskets and collect old clothing for the needy.

The requirements for membership are as follows: No lower than a G in conduct and no failing grades. If a member misses three meetings, her name is dropped from the roll.
The Milby Bowling Club furnishes after school activities for those students who wish to learn how to bowl. When in the fall of 1950 the students and teachers of English saw the need for a class in Creative Writing, they organized the Milby Scribblers, the first of its kind in Houston. It was organized with the hope that a wider range of expression and better writing ability could be obtained from the course. Since its beginning the members have submitted their entries—essays, magazine articles, poetry—to state as well as national contest. To these students the medium of the pen is the best way to express their ideas.
