W. I. STEVENSON, Principal
J. T. LONG, Assistant Principal

Dear Fellow Teachers and Students of the Great Buffalo Herd:

We are still on the march, crossing back and forth the great prairies of time, leaving a vivid trail made by the many fine accomplishments of the past. We are experiencing new grounds this year with the hope of making a still more indelible impression by our many achievements. Everyone can help by following his leaders in the various activities of the school.

As Buffaloes, the largest game animals in America, let us face the storms ahead bravely and fearlessly, each doing his part to make a greater and more glorious record than in the past for Milby High School.

Congratulations to our fine faculty sponsors and the entire Buffalo staff for the beautiful record herein portrayed in this, our 1953-1954 school annual.

Your friend,

W. I. Stevenson, Principal

rhapshody in blue

Twenty-six celestial stars floated up to the royal throne as the Queen of the May Fete was crowned by her King in the gala surroundings of "Rhapsody In Blue," the annual Milby May Fete held Tuesday, May 5, 1953, in the school auditorium. The runners-up for queen were the two lovely princesses escorted by their princes.

The songs and decorations all coincided with the theme, "Rhapsody In Blue." "Blue Moon," "Am I Blue," "Blue Skies," "Mood Indigo," "Birth of the Blues," "May Queen" were offered by the girl's chorus and the orchestra.

The May Fete is staged by the Coeds and the Music Department.

When in the fall of 1950 the students and teachers of English saw the need for a class in Creative Writing, they organized the Milby Scribblers, the first of its kind in Houston. It was organized with the hope that a wider range of expression and better writing ability could be obtained from the course. Since its beginning the members have submitted their entries—essays, magazine articles, poetry—to state as well as national contest. To these students the medium of the pen is the best way to express their ideas.
