FOREWORD

As we, the Staff, present this twenty-first volume of the Buffalo, we hope that you will find it to be an interesting record of the outstanding school events and a satisfactory picture gallery of the Milby family of the 1954-1955 term. May this volume be a key that will unlock your treasure house of happy memories of Milby days.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

A school annual cannot be the product of a small group. To produce a worthy book many hearts and hands must combine their efforts. We, the Annual Staff and the Sponsors, gratefully acknowledge the help of Mrs. Marjorie Spencer and the Art Department; Mrs. Margaret Wisdom, of Publications; Mr. Richard Niemi of the Drama Department; Mr. Harold G. Bishop, our photographer, of the Bishop Company; Mr. V. C. Moore, Bob Moore, and George Rogers, for extra pictures; the Faculty; and the Administrative Staff.

IN MEMORY OF

Friends and benefactors of Milby through the years.

THE BUFFALO

When God the Artist carved the Buffalo,
Shaped the massive head, the giant frame,
He formed his masterpiece of Western art.
Canyons wild and boulders brown, crags
and brassy skies
Are but a backdrop bold, designed to show
The Conquering Buffalo.

When the Heavenly Artist viewed His handiwork-
Brawny symbol of dignity, might, and power-
So pleased was He with what His hand had wrought,
He gave to rule the virgin land - desert, streams,
and plain
Their King, dauntless leader of stout-hearted herds,
The Majestic Buffalo.

Thirty-five cents,
please!

Everyone eats while Stovall studies his civics. That's the price a senior must pay.

Aaaaaah
Food!

The Plainsman is the best.

The comics aren't the only thing that Milby students read!!

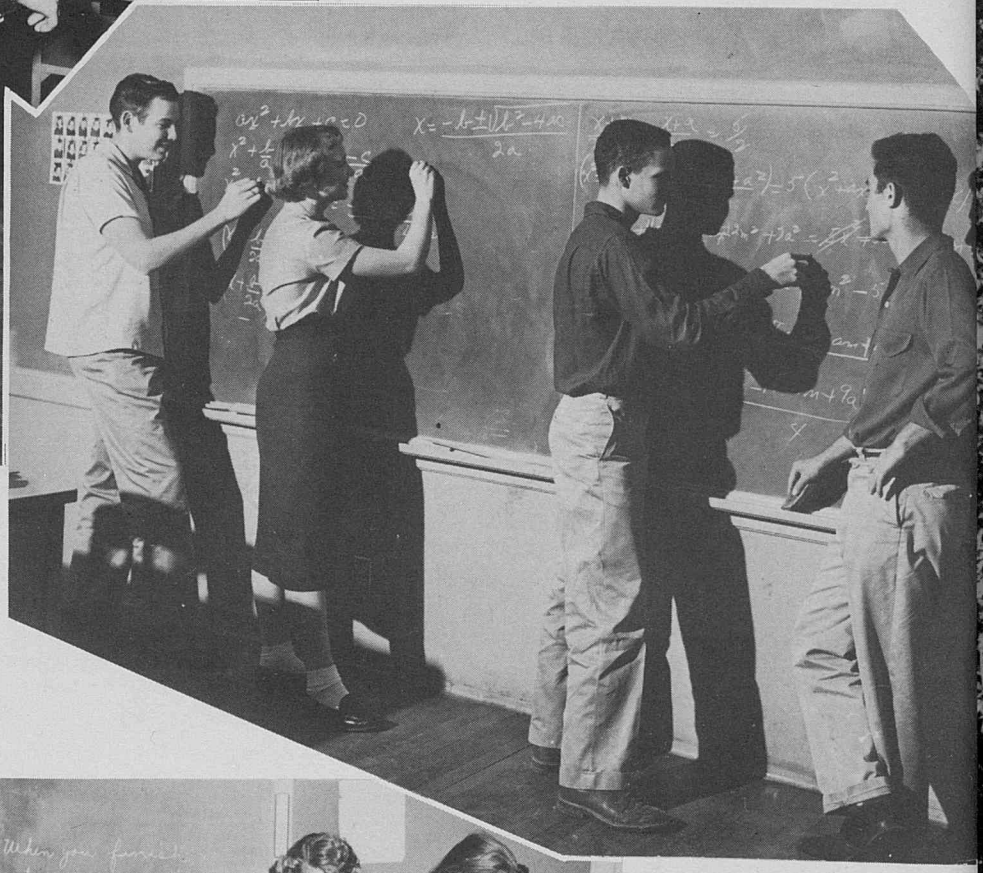

35-44-55-Hike!

Richard Kaough leaps through the air over his fellow cheerleaders and Roger Puckett, Band Major.

Milby

Loaded with school spirit and enthusiasm, Milby's junior and senior cheerleaders went to Huntsville, Texas for the annual summer cheerleader rally. These peppy teenagers brought back honors to Milby of First Place for the second consecutive year. Willing workers and forever Milby boosters are our cheerleaders.

LET'S GO BIG BLUE . . . LET'S GO!

Cheerleaders

MILBY HIGH SCHOOL BAND

Mr. Eugene Seastrand, Conductor

Marching at football games and playing for assemblies are only two of the feats performed so well by the Milby High School Band. Milby annually enters the Southeast Music Festival held in Conroe, Texas.

ORCHESTRA

Mr. Eugene Seastrand, Conductor

The Milby High School Orchestra, conducted by Mr. E. L. Seastrand, performs at the May Fete, Music Festival, school operetta, and on other occasions when they are needed. Each year they enter the Interscholastic League Contests held at the University of Houston. This orchestra has greatly contributed to the students' musical enjoyment at Milby.

DREAM COURT

To the musical theme of "Star Dust" the beautiful Queen of the May Fete, surrounded by her resplendent court, was crowned by her King on April 30, 1954. Two lovely princesses, the runners-up, were escorted by their Princes.

The "Dream Court" was indeed one of the highlights of the term's events. In everything the dreamy theme prevailed—in the filmy, pastel-hued gowns, the dainty stage decorations, in the entertainment program.

"Dream," "Stairway to the Stars," "Dream, Dream, Dream," and "Dream Train" were some of the numbers offered by the vocalists and the orchestra.

The entertainers, Beverly Roberts, Ken Willis, Girl's Trio, Girls' Quartette, Girls' Chorus, and the orchestra gave an evening of high pleasure.

Each year the Coeds and the Music Department cooperate in staging the May Fete.

FACULTY ACTIVITIES

Mr. Stevenson, Mr. J. O. Webb, and Mr. Moore converse in front of the office.

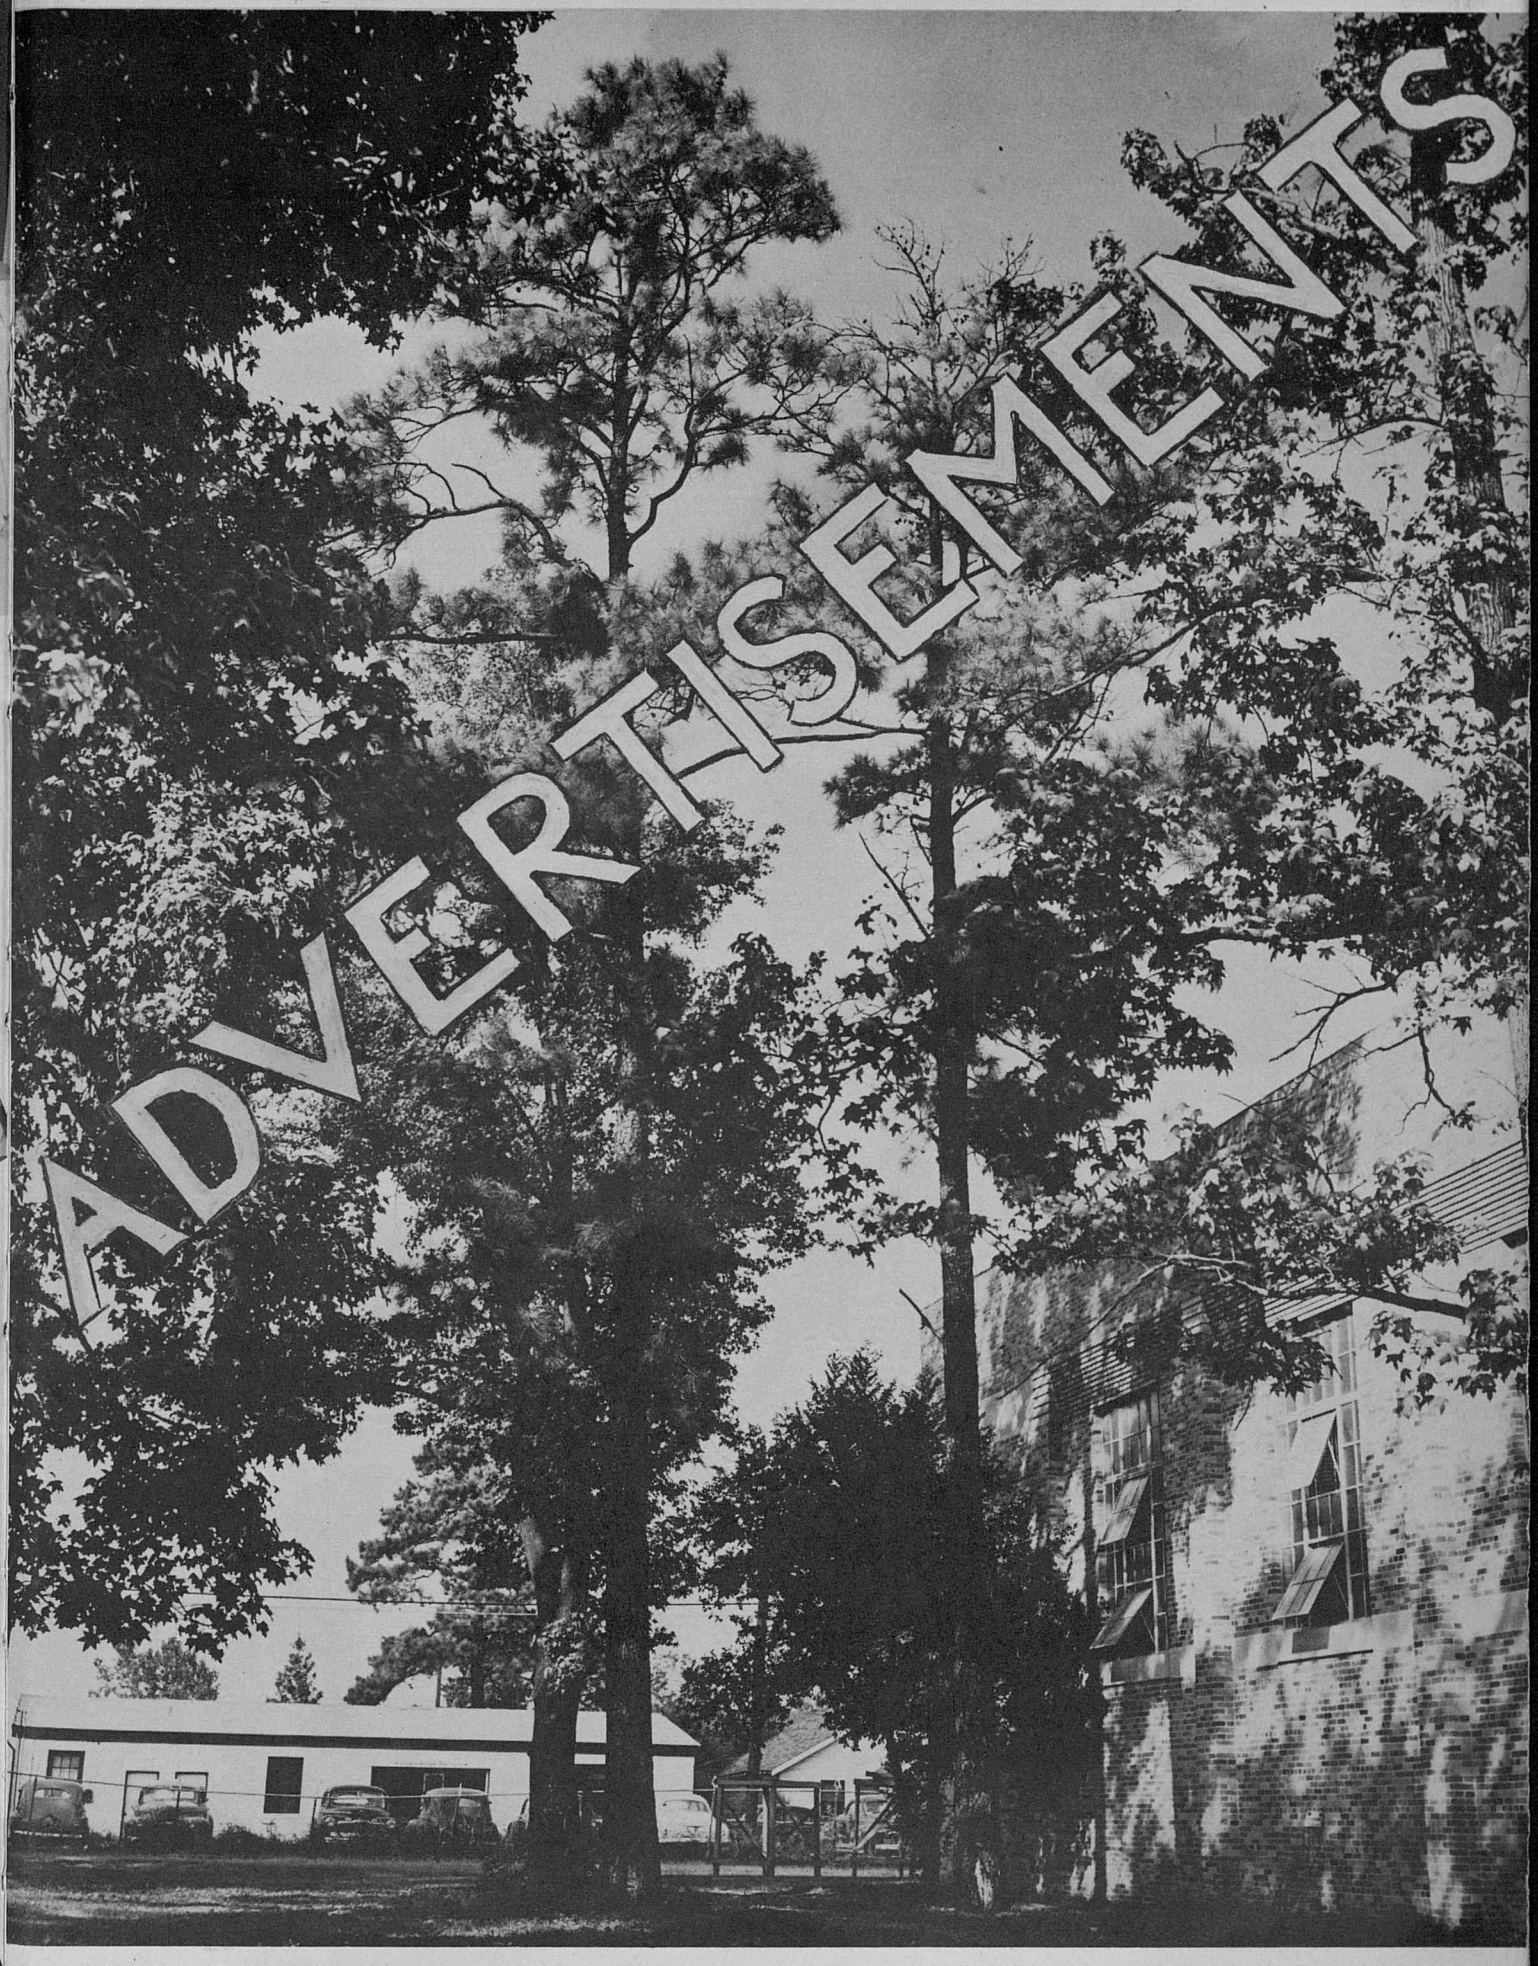

Mrs. Reba Lucey, a former P. E. teacher, has left Milby and is now residing in Germany.

Miss Butler, the new Girls' P. E. teacher, is sponsoring the Modern Dance Club.

There's always some action going on in the office.

ADVERTISEMENTS

Dear Aileen,

To one of the most wonderful persons in the world. May God bless you through your later life. I hope you will always remember no matter what happen that I love you more than anything in the world.
