Dear Neal,

When Webster defiend a friend, he said, One who cherishes kind regard for another? and in so doing he illustrated the complete inadequacy of the English language when it comes to expressing a sincere compassion for another. But never the less an attempted ectype of flowery trite will be nacide.

He is everyone, blended into one

Let's skip all the things you've read about him, all the things you've heard too often or too seldom.

Forget the face in the hall, the speeches on assembly.

Forget the official things and look at the big thing-

What is there about W. I. STEVENSON?

He came out of nowhere special, a small town named Cooper, Texas. His folks were no one special.

W. I. STEVENSON was a smart boy, but not too smart.

He told funny stories. He was energetic and kind.

Young W. I. worked at odd jobs, pursued an acting career in his backyard with penny show. W. I. played hard too, especially as a "southpaw" pitcher for his team at Cooper High.

Eventually he found his way into the teaching profession.

And it was then that people began to know there was something special about W. I. Stevenson.

W. I. had a habit of expanding without changing. So it seemed perfectly natural that after graduating, he entered Texas Christian University.

Never once did he refuse a job to further his education. Selling bibles, evangelist singer, and purchasing agent all became familiar to him.

His dream became a reality when he told his wife, Kittie, "Let's go get a school."

State Superintendent.

First Grade State Certificate

William I. Stormson THE HOLDER HEREOF, having satisfactorily completed four full academic courses and one full course in education and pedagogy at Upas Ominitation Mathematical Iocated at , , which institution has been recognized by the State Board of Examiners as a college or university of the first class, is granted this which entitles to contract to teach in the public schools of the State of Texas. This cruificate shall be valid for a period of TWO YEARS from the date of issuance.

Given under my hand and the seal of the State Department of Education at Austin, Texas, this 2 2 day of July , 1910.

Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson leave for Portland, Oregon to attend the annual meeting of the Association for Secondary Principals.

Mr. Stevenson hauls hay on his farm during the war years.

The Stevensons join in singing a church hymn.

But when the war came that might have torn his country apart, no one doubted what W. I. would do.

He became one of the few white collar farmers in Texas.

He was the man behind the plow—the man behind the hoe—the man in the barnyard with his clean, starched, white shirt.

Succeeding has become a habit with W. I. Stevenson, 35 years as principal of Milby, as secretary of the Texas Association of Secondary Schools, as President of Houston Administrators, and many more.

But working and succeeding were not only a habit in the teaching profession but in the church as well.

No matter how near or far away the church, God has played a large role in W. I.'s life.

First as a member, then as a Sunday School teacher, a deacon—and at last the reward—an Elder in the Magnolia Christian Church.

W. I. Stevenson always does what most people would do, says what they want said, thinks what they would think if they stopped to think about it. That is why— He is everybody, blended into one.

W. I. Stevenson meets with the P-TA.

For this reason, we, the staff humbly dedicate this 1960 edition of the Buffalo to W. I. STEVENSON.

Though it is small repayment for his 35 years of tireless and devoted efforts as principal, we hope that in its small way this tribute expresses our gratitude and admiration to Milby's first principal.

it I, d

T he social whirls, carnivals, parties, and plays of 1960, have made the profile of a year a success.

The activities of this school year have been full of enjoyment and fun. The many school functions have tended to draw the students and the teachers together by working hand in hand. Milby's Winter Whirl was held at the Sylvan Beach Ball Room. Every girl felt her loveliest in her gown and to her Prince Charming she was Miss Cinderella. With this event and many others, memories were created to last a life time.

One of the biggest school functions held annually, is the AY Carnival.

Wallace Sisk and Bonnie McCool were crowned by Principal W. I. Stevenson, as AY King and Queen. To the Milby students, every event of this school year has been meaningful and gratifying.

Along with sponsoring the football banquet for the varsity and the B-team, they sponsored an outing for all the spring sports. The President, J. S. Deleery, along with other members of the club negotiated with the School Board and Dr. J. W. McFarland regarding building improvements and boundary lines. Both ventures were considered a success.

In the summer, the club has plans for a summer recreation program similiar to the one used in other cities in Texas for building stronger football and track teams. The Dad's Club also assisted the coaching staff in securing equipment and films for the football team.

The Track team also benefited from the efforts of the club by improvements on the grounds and equipping the athletic field for the shot put, high jump, pole vault, discus, and broad jump.

P-TA Honors Students And Faculty

For the past year at Milby, the P-TA has been striving for better relationship between parents, teachers, and students. The P-TA, a voluntary organization, has united the homes, school, and community for the bettering of youth activities.

Leading the P-TA in their work is Mrs. E. L. McFeron, president; Mr. Roscoe Bayless, vice-president; Mrs. J. G. Gonzales, treasurer; Mrs. Roger Griffin, historian; Mrs. John McClinton, parliamentarian; Mrs. Clara McLendon, dean; and Mr. W. I. Stevenson, principal.

In their activities, the P-TA has accomplished much for Milby. They served at the Faculty Open House in October and March; they also served the sophomores in September and January. They gave away one P-TA life membership to Principal, W. I. Stevenson. A turkey dinner was held as a money-making project and sandwiches and, cookies were served at Homecoming. At Mr. Stevenson's birthday reception, April 2, the P-TA served refreshments. Work on school petitions, co-operation with teachers in the Christmas Party, and helping with the "Hearing Test" for students, and sponsoring party for the winning homeroom in P-TA attendance.

The year ended by awarding a $100 scholarship to a deserving student.

As the Cactus Cuties step on the stage, this scene will take place again. Paul Berlin, emcee of seven of the eight performances, will take the mike as the big show begins.

The first performance, consisting of Milby talent, was held in the Milby auditorium. As the show gained in popularity, the school auditorium became too small to hold the enthusiastic crowd, and the show moved to the Cullen Auditorium at the University of Houston. The clubs at Milby represent all facets of life spiritual, intellectual, literary, and social. Each student has a chance to fulfill his personal desires and at the time serve his school. As there is a club for every personality, most Milby students have found it advantageous to donate time and energy for the ample reward of fun, fellowship, and achievement.

Since most new students will join some group in the next few years, by participating in the club activities, they receive invaluable training and gain social status, so as to help them become an individual.

The many clubs and organizations have helped to develop the profile of a year.

A Penny For Your Thoughts!

Write, write, write on into the night, think, think, think, where's the missing link.

"I can't find that picture!" "Where did I lay that copy?" "Would you crop this picture for me?"

Hurry, hurry, hurry, the deadline is tomorrow. "Where's the pen I let you borrow?" "Miss Hartman, I can't sell that many ads!"

Up until dawn, work til dusk, everything's ready but we all had to rush.

The work; the thoughts; the headaches, the joys; the pains, the pleasures; the togetherness; the mass confusion and at last the final production—the staff's profile of the year.

"Where's Karla? Oh. Karla, is it too late to get this picture in the Activities section? And have you done the layout on the clubs yet?" KARLA LOFGREN, a smiling blonde with a popular personality, applied her efforts as associate editor in charge of layouts to make an attractive book.

Bright eyes, a dimpling smile, a laugh starting off in a husky baritone and ending in a soprano squeal . . . these are the characteristics of SHARON ABDO, associate editor in charge of photo assignments.

Vim, vigor, and vitality helped Sharon as she went with the photographer on his rounds.

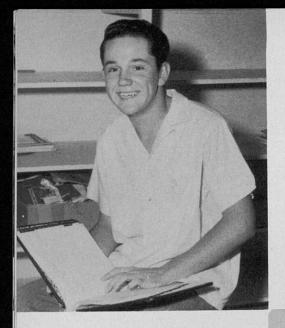

There is one person on a publication who is responsible for everything printed—every picture. every page. every word.

This person is the editor. The editor is blamed for every mistake. The editor is complained to for every slight. The editor is questioned about every problem.

MERLE MONTGOMERY, editor of the 1960 BUFFALO, has it to her credit that there are few mistakes and problems this year. This book is mainly the result of her careful planning.

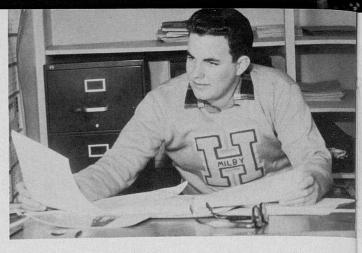

"What do you mean, your club's picture hasn't been taken?" No. no. no, you can't have a full-page picture of each one of your officers!" Ironing out all disputes with all tact and smiling charm was Organizations Editor VIRGINIA BURRER.

Fifty senior pictures haven't been identified. SHARON BLANSFIELD, as class editor, was responsible for all the individual pictures.

"Let's get those ads!" was probably the most-said phrase by yearbook Advertising Manager WALLACE SISK, but popular Wally also managed to make funny comments that lightened the staffers' work.

Always loyal himself to the athletic progress of Milby, WILEY CARMICHAEL found working as sports editor right up his alley, as he recorded the feats of the Gold and Blue.

"Uh-oh, here's a word spelled wrong." Besides writing herself, Copy Editor PATSY ROHRDANZ was responsible for weeding out all the little errors that managed to creep into everyone's work.

JUDY KENNEDY was favorites editor. A staffer since her sophomore year, Judy used her background to put out a good section.

A bounce in her step and a twinkle in her eye characterized HOLLY HOLMAN, literary editor, who thought up snappy headlines.

That "just right" word or phrase was often supplied for yearbook copy by LAURA McNEIL.

From typing to writing to picture-taking to sorting . . . JERRY BATY is ready to lend a hand with anything.

Looking up an odd scrap of information or laying out a page, IRA McLAIN did it with a smile.

BOBBY ECKHART wrote copy and sold ads with the zest and bounce that has always typified him. The brain, hands, and car of dependable DONALD HANNSZ were always at the service of the yearbook.

Anything from sweeping the yearbook office to composing speeches fell within the province of WAYNE CURINGTON.

LINDA HOCHER typed stencils and ran off dittoes as she handled the yearbook's secretarial work.

Another futile attempt at Journalism was thwarted as the staff of the PLAINSMAN ground out its bimonthly scandal sheet.

New romances bloomed at the Now's-Your-Chance Dance. Trips and conclaves also claimed their share of the vital time of staff members.

First In. Service

The widely known Key Club of Milby, sponsored by Mr. George K. Harris, was first organized in Sacramento, California in May of 1925. Its purpose was to combat illegal aspects and undesirable influence of high school secret societies and fraternities.

The purpose of the club is to give primacy to the human and spiritual, rather than the material values of life.

The Key Club's many members consist of young men scholastically qualified from the upper three classes of the school, with good character and possessing leadership ability.

The Key Club takes a very active part in all of Milby's activities, supporting the school and promoting welfare.

For the first time in Milby's history, eight outstanding students were chosen because of their scholastic ability and participation in school acivities by a committee of ten teachers. These honorees have devoted their time and efforts to the welfare of Milby in the three years they have been here. Working to promote school activities, as well as keeping a high grade average, they have continually set an example for the other students and kept Milby's name alive.

Before being selected by the committee, the following were observed and discussed: being in two unrelated activities, having at least a B average, being a senior, and being all around genial and cooperative.

These honorees, the committee feels, will benefit and be a credit to Milby in the years to come as they are now in this profile of the year.

SPOTLIGHTED FOR ACHIEVEMENT

THE HONOREES

MERLE MONTGOMERY, excelling in scholarship, graduates with highest honors among the '60 senior class. Selected for her capability and genial attitude, Merle has acquired such honors as: ROTC sponsor, Editor of '60 BUFFALO, Editor of PLAINSMAN, Homemaker of the year, runner-up, Most Representative Jr. and Sr., Girls' State.

DONALD HANNSZ, apparently collective and thoughtful, stands out in the memories of those who know him as a studious and diligent worker. Besides graduating with highest honors, he has acquired; ROTC, Battle Group Commander, Junior Rotarian, Boys' State and NHS, pres.

KAY KNOBLOCH, pert and pretty, stands out in scholastic achievement as well as social standings, graduating with honors at the end of three spontaneous years. Honors which have followed Kay through these years are: PLAINSMAN, co-editor, CSU, pres., GBC, veep., and Miss Kaliedoscope. PAUL SCHRADER, genial and calm, graduates with highest honors this year. Due to his scholastic ability and honorary achievements, he has received such titles as, Most Representative Junior and Senior, Football co-captain, Oilman for a Day, and obtained the Looney Award.

NANCY NORRED, sweet and silent, possesses numerous qualities and capabilities, enabling her to graduate with highest honors among her classmates. Nancy has received such titles as; FTA, reporter, JRC, sec., and is a member of the Girls' Volleyball Team.

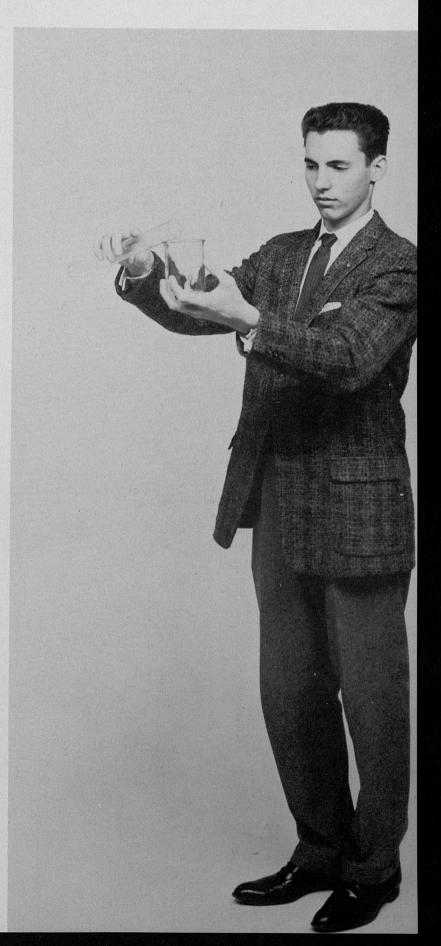

PEGGY ROBINSON, soft spoken and sincere, through her willingness and acceptance of responsibility has gained highest honors with her graduating class. She is also Lieutenant of Bugles in Coeds.

MELBA EVANS, a vision of charm and poise, has obtained high scholastic ratings during her years at Milby, graduating with highest honors. Her previous honors include; Bisonettes, treas., ROTC sponsor, AY Carnival princess, and Kaleidoscope Cutie. DONALD VEAZY'S expressive manners and cool ways leaves no doubt in anyone's mind why he graduates this year with highest honors. Donald works with Milby and its organizations, acquiring titles such as; Student Council, pres., Key Club, pres., Jr. Rotarian, and Citadel.

GIRLS' STATE AND BOYS' STATE

PAMELA THOMAS, DONALD HANNSZ, AND MERLE MONTGOMERY represented Milby at the 1959 Annual Sessions of Girls' State and Boys' State. Merle will attend the 1960 session of Girls' State as a counselor.

PAUL SCHRADER received the 1960 Looney Award for having the highest scholastic average on the team—5.0.

beautiful, band some seniors

A perfect picture of charm and poise combined with a warm smile and quiet manner, set off by soft-spoken sincerity, describes GLENDA BURNS to a tee.

His clean cut appearance and conservative ways plus his inviting smile and friendly expressions, keep GENE TAYLOR in the number one spot among his friends.

popular seniors

- Stubborn ways, excelling friendliness and laughing dimples, highlighted by a pug nose and cow brown eyes, is why everyone enjoys WALLACE SISK'S company.

A livelier girl you've never seen, with friendly, pert laughter and perky enthusiasm accented by high standards, and diligent cooperation CAROLYN McSWAIN never stops.

representative seniors

PAUL SCHRADER'S enjoyable humor and snappy wits, together with his easy ways and casualness, explains why all of his friends know and like him.

The life of the party with her joking personality merged with her gay wit and industrious workmanship, helps everyone feel right at home with KAY KNOBLOCH.

beautiful, handsome juniors

A clear portrait of natural beauty and feminine poise, highlighted by a modest, chic appearance and quiet ways portray just a few of BETH CAMPBELL'S excelling traits. A rugged smile and wistful ways, a cool look and a love of sports easily express why BOYD TIMMONS is outstanding in everything attempted.

popular juniors

A cute saucy smile and playful actions together with dark hair and dark eyes express clearly VICKIE BUCKNER as the pert comedian she is.

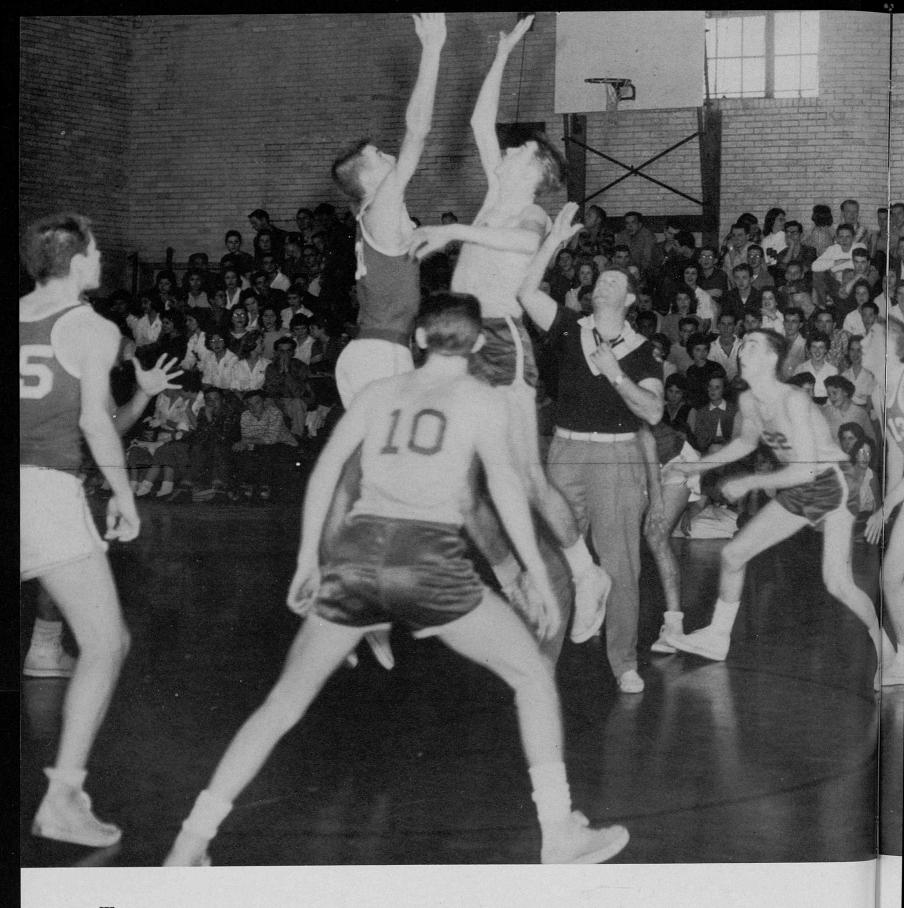

Independent airs, athletic ability, and high scholastic standings put BLAIR REBER on the top with his sharp, neat features and friendly efforts.

beautiful, hand some sophomores

A spicy look and a willingness to please, a friendliness to everyone and a capable ability, touched off by blonde hair and green eyes, create only one person, LINDA CLARK.

His smooth ways and calm appearance, his boyish manners and deep thoughts, his warm expressions and independent ideas, gives DUANE BRANDT his ability to make innumerable friends.

The gymnasium is a lonely place without people. The uninhabited benches, the baskets, and the scuffed floor in silent stillness all seem to reflect loneliness. Yet, when two teams array their strength and cunning against each other, the loneliness disappears and is replaced by the enthusiasm of the cheering crowd. Irregular, short-lived outbreaks led by six lively figures arise from the ever watchful onlookers as each team makes a basket. It is the same with all sports, the hearty yells, and rythmic drills reflect the great school spirit showed by Milby students.

But without the game, there would be no people, no noise, no life. There would be no competitive sports; for without school spirit and support, the players would have nothing to encite them to win.

Whatever the game, football, basketball, baseball, tennis, or track, they all have the quality which is the essence of every sport—competition. Each sport has helped to make this a profile of a year.

SPORTS

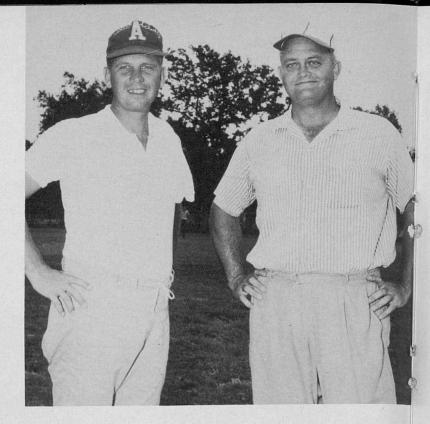

Gil Bartosh, head football coach.

Milby now claims with due right the best coaching staff in Texas. Two of its members were nominated for coach of the year in 1959. Three new coaches have been added to the staff.

New head coach, Gil Bartosh has a list of qualifications for his position that date back to his high school days at Granger High School where he made all-state on a state championship team and earned the title of "Granger Ghost."

From Granger the new head mentor went to TCU where he was "All SWC" his sophomore year. After graduating, Coach Bartosh played football in the Canadian Professional League.

JACKETS EDGE BUFFS 13-7

 $E_{xperience paved the way for a 13-7 victory for the Galena Park Yellow Jackets at Dement Stadium in Galena Park. Milby scored late in the first quarter on a seven yard pass play from Reber to Timmons. An inexperienced Milby line held Galena Park until late in the second quarter when Jacket quarterback Steward went over from the 1. The first half ended with the score Milby 7, Galena Park 6.$

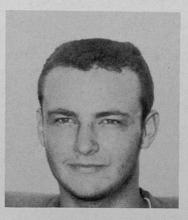

At the beginning of the second half Galena Park's Steward broke away for a 65 yard run that won the game.

T raveling to Nacogdoches for the second game of the season, the Milby Buffs capitalized on a break on the first punt of the game to upset the highly regarded Nacogdoches Dragons, 13-6.

On a fourth down punt, Dickie Taylor recovered a Nacogdoches fumble on the 17 yard line. Six plays and one first down later, Milby made their first score as Tailback Blair Reber blasted over from the one yard line. Reber added the extra point to send the Buffs to a 7-0 lead.

Early in the third period, the Buffs opened up with a 50 yard drive and gobbled up three first downs on the way to paydirt. Butch Timmons raced over from the nine and the final tally for the speedy Buffs.

GOLDEN BUFFS THROTTLE SAN JAC

Milby's Herd, looking more like an antelope herd, thundered up and down mud-laden Jeppesen Field almost without resistance as the Buffs trampled thin San Jacinto into submission 28-0.

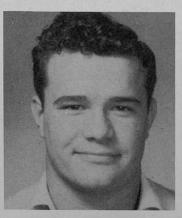

Coach Bartosh's swift backs racked up 298 yards and 24 first downs to record their second victory. Jonny Dansby dived over from the one for the first TD, Blair Reber kicked for the extra point. Reber and Billy Denning worked the ball down field and Butch Timmons scored with Reber again converting. Quarterbacks Reber and Franklin Heide scored in the third quarter with Dansby running over for four extra points.

BUFFS WALLOP LAMAR, 22-6

Milby captured their third winning decision of the year by dropping Lamar 22-6.

Lamar scored first, with the Redskins moving 66 yards in 8 plays. A Joe Ince to Bob Wolf pass made the touchdown, putting the score at 6-0 in the first quarter.

Johnny Dansby scored the Buffs first touchdown in the second quarter, and then went over for 2 points, making the score 8-6 at the half.

In the third quarter Reber and Fauver scored to put the Buffs out of reach.

BUFFS WIN THREE, COLLAPSE

Riding a three game winning streak, "Charlie Buffalo" was dropped by the Jones Falcons, 26-6.

After receiving the opening kick, the Herd, unable to move the ball, punted on fourth down and the mighty Falcons forced their way downfield and scored on a Cooper to Murdy pass. Jones took advantage of all the breaks to beat a fumbling Buffalo.

Cooper, Siebneicher, and McRill scored on the ground for Jones, with Hewitt scoring two kicks. Milby went to the air 20 times, completing only 10 and giving away three. Butch Timmons, Milby's lone salvation, ran 63 yards for the Buffs only tally.

BIG RED BLANKS BIG BLUE

Firing on all cylinders, Bellaire ground out a workmanlike 23-0 victory over the Milby Buffs.

The first period went scoreless but a full throttled offense hung seven points on the scoreboard in the second period and added eight more points in each of the third and fourth periods.

The big horses for Bellaire were Bobby McGlaun, Bill Champion, and Tom Hillary.

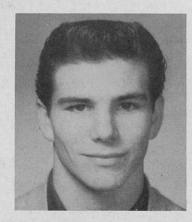

A dazzling 43 yard run by Boyd Timmons and a 54 yard pass play from Blair Reber to Sid Jones got the Buffs as far as the 11 and 10 yard line but the Cardinals dug in and held their ground. The game ended with the Buffaloes threatening from the Bellaire 21.

BUFFS TROMP TIGERS

Entering their initial district encounter, the Milby Buffs conquered the Sam Houston Tigers. Milby scored first early in the second quarter on a 5 yard romp by tailback Blair Reber. The Tigers quickly retailiated with 7 points. With about 11 seconds left in the half Reber tossed a 25 yard touchdown pass to Jim Fauver. Two plays later, after recovering a Milby fumble, Sam Houston added another touchdown, making it 13 to 12. They then punted the ball back to Milby and 12 plays later, Reber blasted over from the 8. Reber passed to Fauver for the two point conversion making the score 20 to 13, Milby. Dansby finished it up for the Buffs with a dive from about the 1 yard line in the last ten seconds of the game.

 $O_n$  a cold, windy Friday the 13th, the Buffs lost their fourth game of the season to Davis, 13-0.

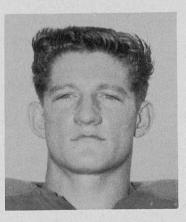

Fullback Tommy Jankowski triggered the Panther attack when he returned the opening kickoff 65 yards to the Milby 15. Three plays later, Jankowski bulled over from the five, Rustik Karnouch converted and Davis held a 7-0 lead with less than two minutes gone. Midway through the third quarter, Davis crossed again with Quarterback Mike Walder tossing the final 23 yards to End Jack Moody. The extra point was missed and the night ended seeing Milby lose its first district game to a very high fired up Davis team.

Milby got its big chance early in the third period when Jim Fauver stole Christian's pass on the Austin 33. The Big Blue battled hard to the 5 and then three plays later Timmons went over for the tying touchdown. With Fauver holding, Reber converted for the winning point, and for the third straight year the score was 7-6.

The NEW Milby Buffaloes under the guiding hand of Gil Bartosh for the first year, finished with a 6-4 record, tying the best record of Milby since 1949. The Buffs gained a piece of district by thoroughly trouncing the Reagan Bulldogs, but due to the loss the week before to Davis, the district ended in a three way tie. Had the district ended in a tie between Milby and Reagan, Milby would have represented the district, but the next night Davis beat Sam Houston and gained a share of the title. By a complicated process of total points, Reagan was chosen to represent District 9-AAAA in state competition.

Hats off to Coaches Bartosh, Truelove, and Schultz, for taking an inexperienced team that was picked to win but two games all year, to one of the best years in Milby history. Captains for the year were Paul Schrader and Lyn Payne.

THEY SAID IT COULDN'T BE DONE

Favored to lose by three touchdowns, the Milby Buffs romped the Reagan Bulldogs 28-13.

The fired-up Buffs scored after forcing a Reagan punt on the first series. Milby marched 67 yards in nine plays with Reber passing to Dumesnil for the final three yards, Reber converted, making it 7-0.

After the first half and before the second half, Ronnie Wright jump passed for six points to Lyndon Sander from the six after the siren sounded, and Eddie Butler missed the tying point. Dansby leaped over from the one in the third quarter, and Reber's pass to Dansby gave Milby a 15-6 lead.

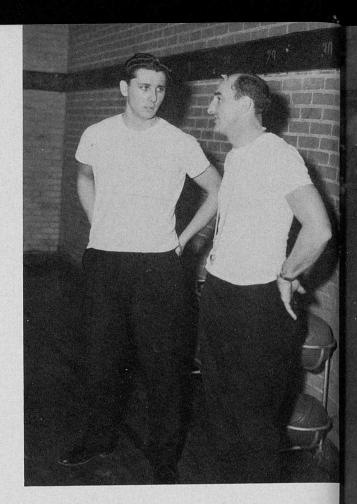

The Bulldogs jumped back to score on a 31-yard pass from Wright to Butler with Butler kicking the extra point to make it 15-13, Milby.

The battling Big Blue just wouldn't give in, and from the seven Reber hit Dumesnil for the touchdown. Two plays later Reber grabbed Wright's pass and raced all the way to put the Buffs out of reach. Ronnie Dumesnil catches first of two TD passes.

Increased is the word describing this year's thinclads; increased interest, increased effort, and increased emphasis. The reason for this increase is the shot in the arm given by new Head Track Coach Carroll Schultz.

Coach Schultz is one of the additions to the Milby Coaching staff. Since coming to Milby he has organized a strong track program. This program includes a year-round workout on weights, and running to keep in shape. It also involves working out with the University of Houston track team at Jeppeson Stadium, to gain experience and knowledge. Coach Schultz, a former coach at Aldine High, is also backfield coach for the football team.

The faculty of Milby advises as well as teaches the student body. They are an aid and an asset to the students and many warm friendships arise from their close associations with each other in the classrooms. Working together with Mr. Stevenson, the faculty has accomplished many things. Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson at an afternoon tea is just one example of the active and concerned part they take in our school. Besides teaching and assisting the students in the right way, many times they join in the fun of the school activities. Almost every teacher is a sponsor of a club at Milby and many hours of their time are spent in helping to make the social standings of Milby a success by participating in a profile of a year.

FACULTY HONORS STEVENSON AT TEA THE FACULTY

W. I. Stevenson Bids Farewell

May we linger here between the gray twilight of a departing past and the rosette dawn of a rapidly approaching future to say that the recordings of the present soon become the records of the past.

So it is with school annuals. Soon we turn the pages of our former school days and revel in the recall of some of our happiest associations and experiences if we but knew it.

The high school annual has become one of the few instruments of permanent records to which we may refer for accurate happenings in days of yore.

May we here and now pause to pay our last tribute to the student-staff and teacher-sponsors who have "burned the midnight oil" to bring this splendid publication to its full fruition.

This closes my principalship and work at Milby after 35 years of happiness and 7,000 graduates bid me adieu.

May the memories of dear old Milby linger in our dreams of fondest hope. What a glorious host of fine young people and teachers wave me a fond farewell.

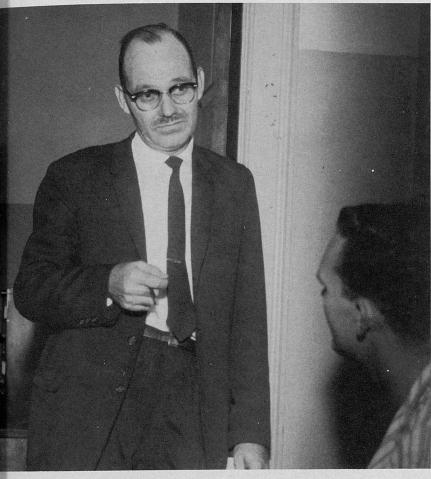

W. I. Stevenson, principal

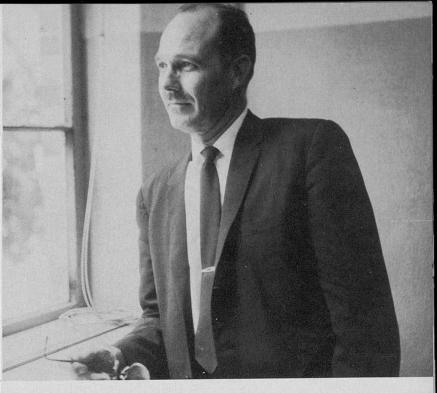

Fare-thee-well,

The final day has come! Those gay senior days are over! This is the grand finale for the senior class of 1960. These days, filled with the memories of tomorrow are drawing to a close. But what lies ahead the bountiful future, a whole life, the chance to conquer the world. One stage of life ends, setting the stage for tomorrow. Yes, this commencement is truly the beginning.

The junior class has had a busy year filled with work, fun, and enjoyment. It has been a year of many exciting and worthwhile activities. During his year, the juniors have learned to work together and to meet new friends. Looking forward to their senior year with hope and fear, they wonder if they are ready.

The sophomore class had felt fear, excitement, happiness and sorrow in the profile of a year. The sophomores have the opportunity to advance in Milby. The choice is theirs. Which will they take?

No, this wasn't the result when Washington met the Indians across the Delaware. This is a typical Milby football game.

Linda Pitts and Charles Munch didn't win the "gleam" award, but they did receive "The Best All-Round" awards from their previous Deady days.

Now what was it I was suppose to get at the grocery store.

THE EDITOR SPEAKS OUT .

Merle Montgomery Editor - F or the last time, I have turned the key in the lock of the purple room with the hidden crevices and secret compartments that devoured Patsy's precious dedication copy and Virginia's sixth-retake organization pictures. Looking back into the room, I see a memory in every dirty fingerprint on the wall, an unforgettable experience in every bottle of overturned rubber cement. Looking closely, I can almost see Karla still working on Page 143, the page that Peggy finished for her three months ago. If you listen carefully, you can almost hear Judy's pityful cry as she stands by the telephone, "Please, I have to call B---," (all apologies to coaching staff) and sitting next to her is Sharon B. who just can't get a way home. Laura's form is visible standing by the file cabinet. She must still be searching for those wandering division pages. Even the presence of those we lost at mid-term can still be felt . . . There's Wayne sulking because he doesn't have any gas left in his car and Bobby just can't understand why people have to share his ads—after all they just went along for the ride. Don't throw that ledger again, Wally, we'll go sell ads with you and we promise not to put our feet on the floor of your new car! If a faint clicking sound is audible, it can be traced to the typewriter in the front of the room. The one that Linda was chained to from September to January. Sitting in the center of the room is Holly and the girls of the round table—Mary Liz, Tommie, Brenda, and Sharon C. It always amazed me the way they could stay so busy and giggle so much. Wiley and Ira are still wrestling over the football section and Sharon A. is playing her scene from "Mrs. McThing."

It is getting late and I must go, but before I leave I want to thank all those who have made this book possible . . . first Miss Wilma Hartman—oops—Mrs. Wilma Hartman Le Noir, who has given freely of her talent and time to make this yearbook live . . . to Mrs. Clyde Perkins, for her indespensible care of our finances . . . to Mr. Harold Bishop and Mr. Roy Arnold, for their wonderful patience and excellent pictures . . . to Principal W. I. Stevenson, Mr. Roscoe Bayliss. Mrs. Clara McLendon, Mrs. Roy Needham, Mrs. Gladys Price, and Mrs. Janie Patterson, for their extra assistance . . . to Mrs. Evelyn Evans, for her stapler . . . to our loyal patrons, the advertisers in this community who put their trust in our ability by advertising in our book . . . and last but not least to our loyal Milby supporters, those of you who are now reading our 1960 BUFFALO.

This is the PROFILE OF YOUR YEAR. We hope it pleases you.
