There are no better reflections of a society than the motion pictures of that period. Motion pictures change with the times to appeal to the majority of people, and in doing so, form a pictorial history of man's aspirations and dislikes through the years. Movies have always preserved people's joys and sorrows, heartaches and triumphs. They are celluloid imitations of life.

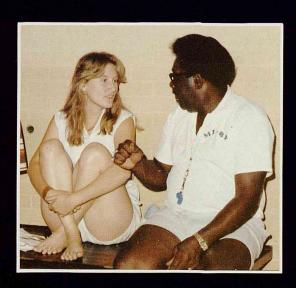

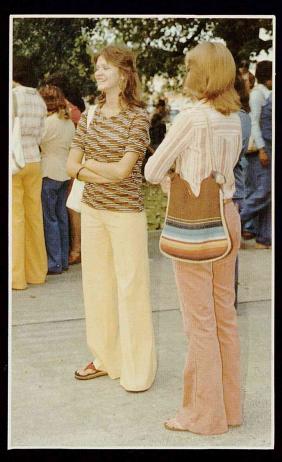

THE WO

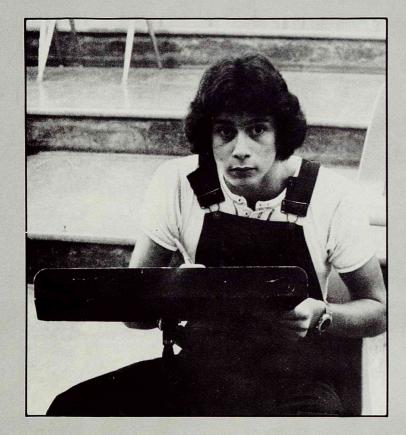

High school also reflects the surrounding world, thus, characteristics found in the world can be found on a smaller scale at Milby. Everything from mystery and drama to comedy can be found in school! Therefore there is a parallel between motion pictures and Milby. Both incorporate similar aspects of life through the people and the happenings.

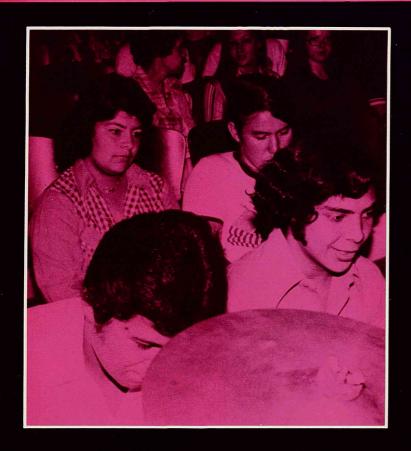

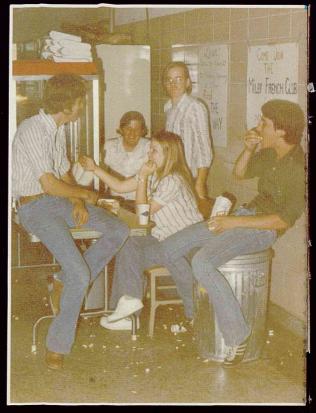

THE GREATES

SHOW ON EARTH

BEHIND

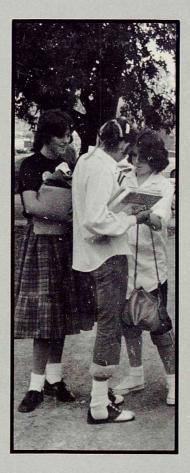

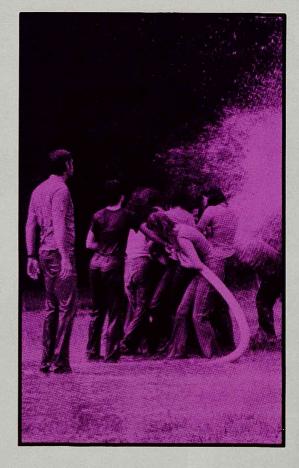

ME SCEZES

The organizations in high school correspond with the people behind the scenes of a movie. Both learn to compromise and work together towards the best result possible. The organizations at Milby set their goals to benefit not only the club members but the entire school and community.

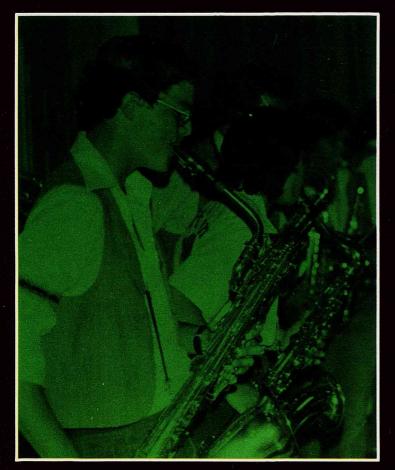

ALICE IN WO

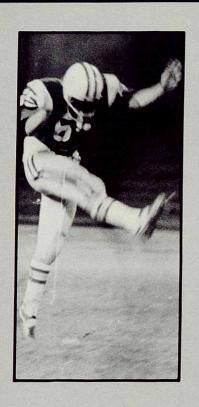

SHONSON

All of the activities throughout the year resemble a screen on which the plots of school life take place. Most likely we will remember the activities before anything else. Who will ever forget the sock-hops, N.H.S. Carnival, Winter Whirl, or Homecoming? These are times when excitement runs high. Whether our memories be happy or sad, these activities reflect "The Way We Were."

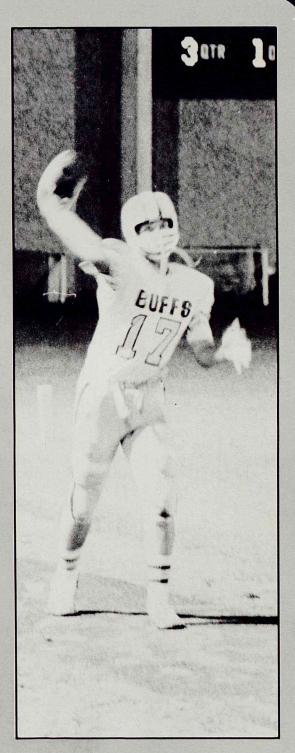

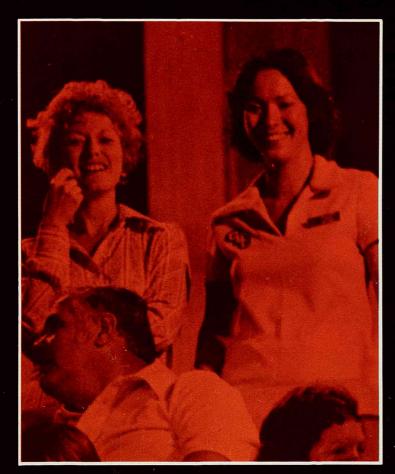

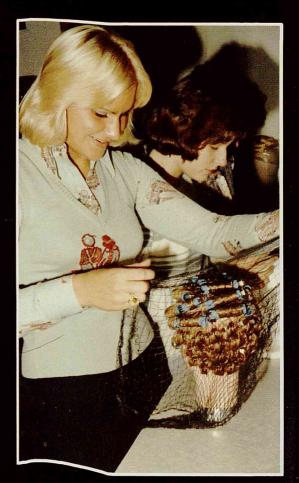

Sports events are much like movie premieres. Both are the result of hard work and dedication to a goal. Endless hours of rehearsal discipline the participants and teach them lasting values.

ALL THE

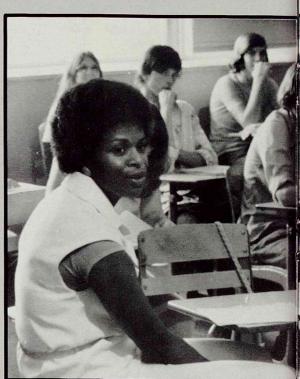

DRESIDEZIS

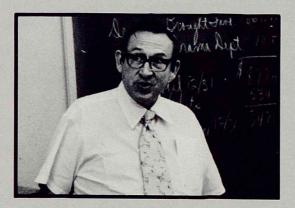

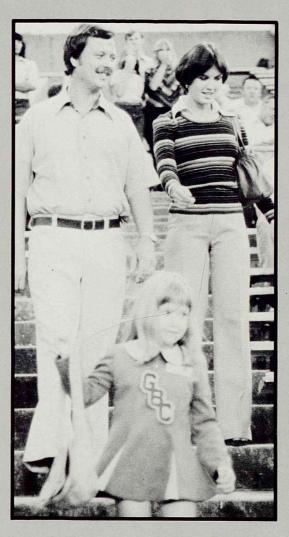

THE MIR

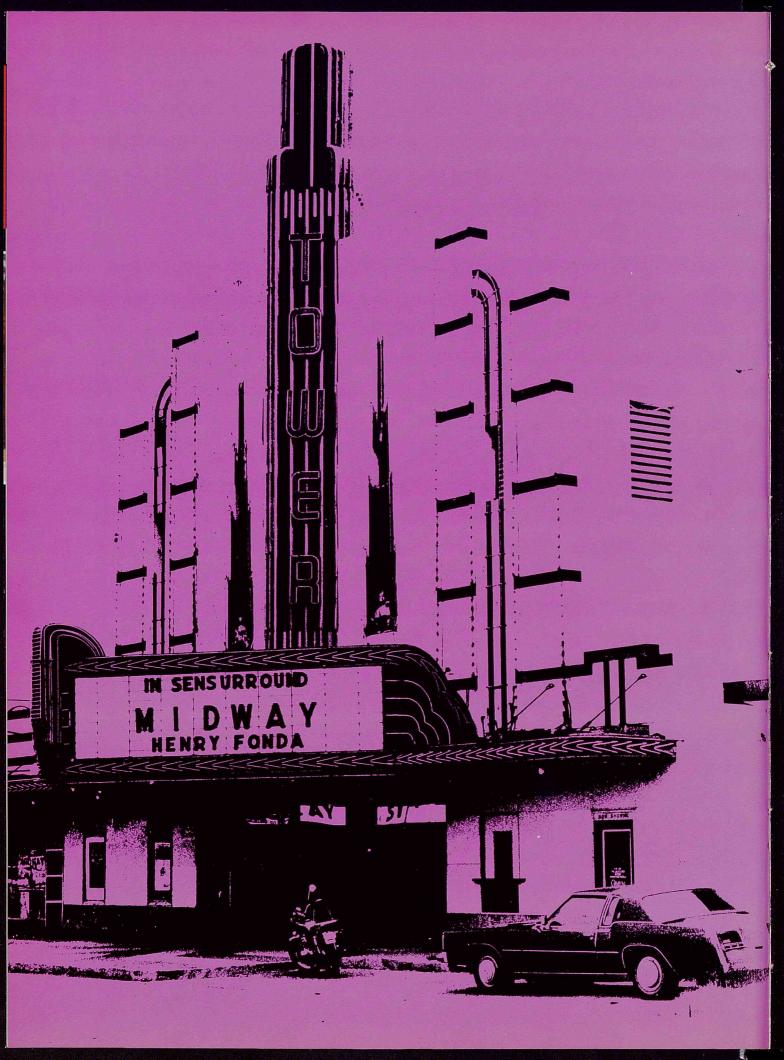

Students at Milby owe much to their teachers. Like the directors of a movie seek to bring forth the best performance from each actor and actress, Milby teachers have tried to help each student to reach his maximum potential.

Student Council

The school year was both busy and successful for the Student Council. Mr. Ed Thompson, their new sponsor, has been very influential in their success. In September the Student Council assisted the Houston Independent School District in a drive for support of the school bond issue. October brought participation in the N.H.S. carnival with a dunking booth. The holiday season saw visions of sugar plums and the rites of spring were celebrated with the Powder Puff Football Game. The year was brought to a close with the Leadership Banquet where the clubs announce their next year's officers.

Milby Coed Cadettes

The Milby Coed Cadettes have seen many changes and received many honors in the past year. Under the direction and leadership of Mrs. Mock, the Coeds have performed in the Astrodome twice, received a first place trophy at drill camp, and have participated in every half-time performance during the football season. The Coeds participated in the Fiestas Patrias parade and Foley's Thanksgiving Day Parade. The senior Coeds are planning a trip to the Bahamas and Key Biscayne during the Easter holidays.

This year's social functions were organized by its social officers. This is the first year in Milby's history to ever have such leaders. Because of the vast number of public events sponsored by the Coeds, the social officers play as important and colorful a role as do the military officers in the functioning of the organization.

Hours of practice under the summer sun and in winter's wind pays off as applause welcomes the Milby Buff Band wherever they perform. They marched in time on Astro turf at the High School All Star football game and at a pre-season Oiler game. The Buff Band won first place in the Bicentennial Parade. They also marched in the Foley's Thanksgiving Day parade. Spectators at Aeros and Rockets games are often entertained by the band. A Christmas program and a spring concert provide students with a varied musical menu. The Pep band adds life to the pep rallies. The Buff Band has a drive to recycle aluminum to finance this year's trip to the Buccaneer Parade in Corpus Christi.

Reserve Officers Training Corps

R.O.T.C. is one of the most important organizations at Milby. This provides a class which can replace physical education with a number of advantages to regular p.e. The students learn discipline, military history, first aid, and cooperation with others. The R.O.T.C. boys and girls drill teams have placed in numerous competitions. The rifle team teaches students how to properly handle a rifle. A program on Texas hunter safety is conducted each year. The Color

Guard presents and maintains the flags at various functions. In addition to these activities, there is also a Bowling League. The R.O.T.C. participates in volunteer work such as support of the March of Dimes. The Military Ball in February sparks the social life of these students. Hours of concentrated effort by these students produce a coordinated show of unexcelled precision. Their hard work and dedication reflect an image Milby can justly be proud of.

Yearbook Sponsor Dora Dillistone

The 1977 Buffalo Staff

September was the start of an exceptional year for the Milby Yearbook. Although the book was planned during Summer Yearbook Camp, the introduction of a new sponsor, last minute changes and training new members created a state of what would appear to outsiders to be mass confusion. New members learned quickly, taking their cues from the experienced group. They were exposed to lay-out techniques, design concepts, photographic techniques, and worked as a team to produce the most representative book of Milby Senior High School. They overcame numerous obstacles in order to achieve their final goal. In the midst of everything, they not only learned how to compile a yearbook, but how to appreciate others for their unique abilities and personal attributes. We sincerely hope everyone finds a special meaning in this book and we wish good luck to the Staff of 1978.

Blackfriars and Thespians

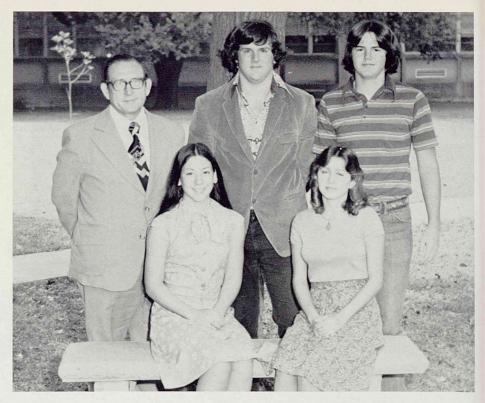

In October, the Blackfriars sponsored their "Come as your favorite character day." Thanks to the Milby students, it turned out to be a great success. Each year the Blackfriars, under the direction of Richard M. Niemi, present a three act play. This year they presented, "See How They Run," by Phillip King. In April, they entered the U.I.L. one-act contest play, in competition with other schools in the district.

Going My Way

Youth for Christ is a unique club which promotes the fellowship of Christian believers. Meetings were held every Wednesday at 7:10 a.m. The programs for these meetings consisted of Prayer groups, guest speakers from churches in the surrounding area, and fun activities. Such functions as a Christmas Party, an Easter project and a bake sale were a part of our yearly activities. The members of YFC would like to express their deepest appreciation to our sponsors - Mr. Morris and Mrs. Sawyer, for their guidance and time.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is composed of students who achieved a high scholastic standing. Every year the National Honor Society sponsors the NHS Carnival and talent show. During the Christmas season they deliver Christmas baskets to needy families. The NHS also sponsors, on February 14, singing Valentines. At the end of every year they provide two scholarships for an outgoing senior boy and senior girl.

In Class

The Fire Technology class is in its first year. This course is an elective and is provided for seniors only. It studies fire history and first aid. In addition to these studies, field trips were added to further the knowledge in a fire-fighters background. The field trips ranged from tackling a 300 pound wild hose to teaching the J. R. Harris Elementary students about fire prevention. They visited a number of fire stations and rode the fireboat at the Houston ship channel.

The yearbook staff sponsored the annual Most Beautiful and Most Handsome contest. This is always an exciting time. The judges surely had a difficult time choosing from so many contestants. Each contestant was rated from one to ten in three categories: poise, appearance, and facial character.

Carnival!

In October, the National Honor Society successfully sponsored their annual Carnival and Talent Show. The activity turned out to be a lot of fun as well as a booming attraction. The variety of booths at the carnival included everything from a disco to a dunking machine. The futuristic booth by the Coeds and Key Club took first prize; the German Restaurant put on by the German Club won second prize; and the Spook House done by R.O.T.C. won third prize.

N.H.S. must also be commended for a great job on the Talent Show. The auditorium was packed as many Milby talents and guests provided entertainment for the evening. The winners included first place, New Horizon; second place, Mark Edson; and third place. Joel Rodriguez. The entire show and carnival was an enjoyable night for everyone.

It's A Mad, Mad, Mad World

The Blackfriars and Thespians once again invited Milby Students to dress up for Halloween and were greeted with a wide response. People came as everything from hockey players to monsters. It is a strange experience to walk right behind an Oscar Mayer weiner or to see a fig dancing down the hall. This has become an annual event which the student body looks forward to every year.

Football Banquet

The annual Football Banquet, sponsored by the Coeds, was a lot of fun. Awards were given to four players: Clifford Hahne was presented the Gammage award for outstanding lineman; Kevin Madole was given the Doug Slaughter award; Velton Vanderford was given the Looney Award for most valuable player; and Russell Plank received the Scholarship award. This year the Red Cross made Thanksgiving baskets for needy families. The student body responded well by bringing canned goods and other non-perishable foods. Students learn the satisfaction in helping others through this type of project.

Winter Whirl, sponsored by the G.B.C.s, is a thrilling event at Milby. It has been a long-held tradition for the girls to ask the boys to the dance and this fact adds to the excitement. This year it was held in the Houston Room at the U. of H. and many students were present to enjoy the rocking music of America '76.

A Christmas Carol

Christmas baskets for the needy were once again sponsored by NHS. The baskets were prepared with goods contributed by all the homerooms. Student Council handed out sugar plums while V.O.E. delivered candyfilled stockings to the classrooms. The halls looked festive as many homerooms participated in the door decorating contest. On the last few school days before the holidays the choir and band entertained students with Christmas songs and music.

Student Council plans and sponsors the annual Powder Puff football game, but the Senior and Junior teams take it from there. Senior and Junior football players coach the girls as they prepare for the battle between the classes. This year, the Seniors spent many hard hours practicing at Dow Park while the Juniors did the same at Reveille. Both teams had some good offensive and defensive plays; but, not everyone realizes just how tough those girls get when they want to win.

Dedicated Bisons

Milby could not be the great school that it is without hard working and caring students, and the honor of Dedicated Bison is to recognize these students. Seniors who have contributed over 100 hours in service to Milby and have a C grade average are eligible. The students are nominated by teachers and chosen by the Scholarship Committee. A congratulations and thank you to all Dedicated Bisons for their work. These students are responsible for the success of many school activities.

Buffs Ripped the Rebs

The second thunderstorm-delayed game and the buffs first victory of the season was led by Vance Schaeffler, who completed nine of 11 passes in the second half including eight in a row. Clifford Hahne, Lynn Maughmer, Mike Richardson and Kevin Madole held back the Rebs to 34 yards offense and a lone first down. A 43 yard breakthrough by Velton Vanderford led the way for an 11-yard touchdown pass to Russell Plank. The winning points were scored by the Buffs when Vance Schaeffler connected on four consecutive passes for 44 yards with 3:02 left in the game. In the last minutes, Chris Threeton intercepted a pass to stop the Rebels.

"The team starts off nipping."

Buffs Caged the Tigers, 20-12

Kewin Madole and Henry Morin recovered fumbles, setting up two fourth quarter touchdowns for Milby, defeating Sam Houston, 20-12.

The recovery made by Kevin Madole on the Sam Houston 44-yard line started a seven play drive and a 12 yard touchdown pass from Vance Schaeffler to Adrian Jones. Morin's recovery on the Tigers' nine yard line set up a three-yard touchdown run by Velton Vanderford.

Buffalo linebacker Robert Gegenheimer intercepted the ball on the 48 yard line and went on for a touchdown. Lonnie Malley converted the extra point kick for Sam Houston's one-point halftime edge.

The Graduate

Anxiously looking towards the impending future, yet turning longing eyes upon the past year with fond remembrances, the seniors of 77 experience much happiness and joy, however; their thoughts are also filled with sadness and regret. As the seniors attended their last football game, danced their last dance at Winter Whirl, and finally attended their last day of school, they look not at where they are today, but where they can be tomorrow. Finally conscious of their responsibility as citizens, many seniors exercised their right to vote for the first time with determination and assurance they assumed the challenge of leadership and directed the organizations of Milby through another successful year. Time will bring the future into focus as the past slips into a hazy image, to be summoned at will as we are "Gone With the Wind."

CLASS MOTTO

Strive for what you believe.

CLASS POEM

"Shine on Fair Milby, Shine on!"

Roslyn Minarcik

Saying goodbye never comes easy,

When you know you'll never follow the same road again.

Looking back at the times we shared — every smile was a friend

Togetherness was the goal every person followed

With great pride in the school it stood for. Blue and gold, life and love,

The label tacked on Milby's door.

Even though we may never return

To experience the joys of yesterday;

There is still a memory of "Fair Milby"

That no one could ever take away.

The best of luck to those who are off to a new start,

And may the spirit and joy of Milby continue to grow and touch each and every heart.

CLASS SONG

The Young and the Restless © (From the Screen Gems T.V. Serial "The Young and the Restless) Words and music by Barry DeVorzon and Perry Botkin, Jr. Gone, dreams of the past Gone with a love That moved too fast

Gone, bright shiny days Gone with a young And restless haze

Why did we love
Then run away?
So little time
So much left to say — now it's gone

Young, and restless friend You'll never pass This way again

So drink the summer's wine Reach for the stars While you have time

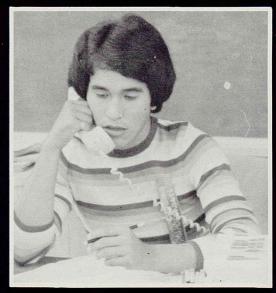

Your restless heart
Will lead the way
So dream your dreams
And live for each day — while you are young

Rebel Without a Cause

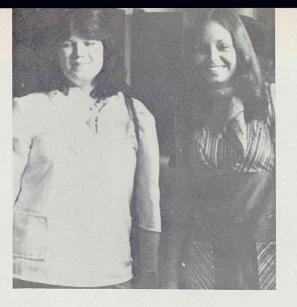

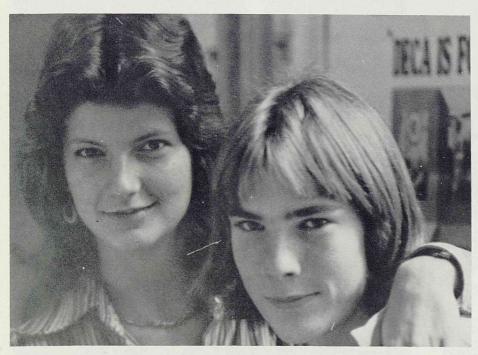

Junior students have always had pressure exerted on them by the seniors and sophomores. Being in the middle, they seem to be relied upon by everyone. This year, they have fought for their independence. It could be considered "The Battle of Midway." In their battle they have shown us their intelligence, individuality, and involvement.

The juniors have done everything possible to support the school and its activities. This is shown by their attendance at athletic events, dances, pep rallies, and other activities. They play an important role in our organizations and have shown us their leadership, not only in organizations, but in class too. Through the juniors we have seen happiness, fear, anger, and sorrow.

The 1977 junior class has won their battle and proved that the Midway is needed to hold the other two sides together.

The sophomore year is a time for making new friends and keeping the old. For one friend is silver while the other friend is gold. Coming into a new school and meeting new people proves to be somewhat frightening and yet an exciting and challenging experience. Will there be a familiar face in the classroom or an old friend to eat lunch with? Is that person behind the desk a friend or a foe and how does a person find room 309? These anxieties soon disappear when a few old faces are seen mixed in with the new. The social environment has expanded some since junior high school. There are so many extra curricular events to attend. It is a hard decision to make whether to perform with the Coeds, march with the Band, cheer with the G.B.C.'s or sing with the choir. Interest can be found in chess, bowling, science club, ROTC, art or any of the other numerous fine clubs. There are many sports to engage in such as football, baseball, basketball, volleyball, and track. Like an omen of things to come opportunities await those who seek them.

In Appreciation for Service

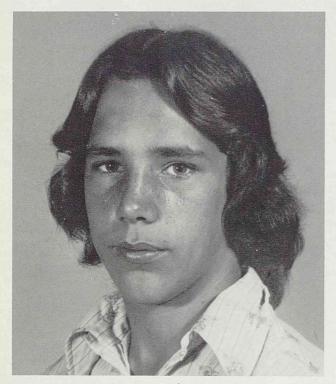

Mrs. Janie C. Patterson

Mrs. Janie C. Patterson, counselor at Milby, is retiring this year after 25 years of service to Milby. She received her Bachelor of Science Degree in 1934 from Southwest Texas State University at San Marcos and her Master's of Science Degree in 1945 from the University of Houston. She came to Milby in 1953 from teaching at Jeff Davis High School as an instructor in the commercial department. She later became a counselor here at Milby. Her sincere desire to help students achieve a higher level of education and an interest in themselves and the world around them has reflected in her 43 years of service. Mrs. Patterson and her husband plan to retire to New Braunfels.

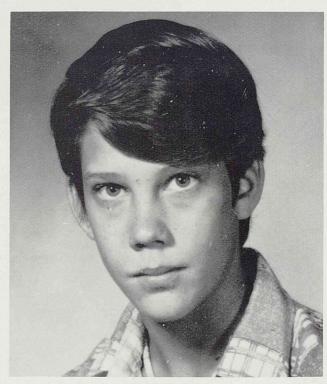

In Memory Of

Mr. William "Bill" Fletcher

Chris Seeberger

The Staff Would Like to Thank:

I, Kelly, would like to thank Yvette for keeping her file box in such good order; adding dog food, washing powder, and hose; and bringing it back in a paper sack for us to alphabetize. I want to thank Kay for falling asleep during indexing. And I'd like to thank Wayne for always agreeing.

I, Tia, would like to thank Kelly and Wayne for exhibiting their unique dancing talents at yearbook camp. I would like to thank the Sr. photographers for their undying photographic efforts, and the Jrs. for their dying efforts. I especially want to thank Chadwick for all the fantastic pictures we never used.

I, Marsha, would like to thank Mike for reviving the wonderfully dead term "Hey Man!" I want to thank Mark for experimenting with the NHS Talent Show film in the light. And I want to thank Edwin and Mike for their admission free boxing matches.

I, Kay, would like to thank Yvette and Lori for holding me up to the Fire Administration window and then dropping me. I would like to thank Wayne for forgetting "little mistakes." And I want to thank the photographers for recreating WW 2 right before our eyes.

I, Maria, would like to thank Lori for taking off to the restroom right before answering a question. I would like to thank Isabel and Laura for making up captions for me. Thanks Buddies! I want to thank Wayne for being so patient while teaching me to draw layouts and crop pictures.

I, Frank, would like to thank Mark for helping me print Kaleidoscope pictures in the light. I want to thank Marsha for her fantastic impersonation of an orange and white chicken. I would also like to thank Mike — for nothing.

I, Isabel, would like to thank the staff for making third period very interesting. Special thanks Pam for my varicose veins.

I, Laura, would like to thank Maria for always sticking her head out the door when I needed captions. And I would like to thank Wayne for always making me repeat my questions.

I, Yvette, would like to thank Lori for allowing me to type her layouts while she sat in the lunchroom. I would like to thank Kelly and Wayne for putting up with Pam and me during indexing. And I would like to thank Pam for the free lessons in eraser sculpting. I would also like to thank her for making me laugh when I had a deadline. I especially want to thank her for letting make up all her dumb captions and then laughing at them.

I, Pam, would like to thank Yvette for all the stupid captions and for being her funny self. I would like to thank Edwin for making sure that basketball tickets got sold during yearbook. And I would like to thank Tia for the Hite Report.

The 1977 BUFFALO, a panorama of school life at Milby Senior High School, reflects the thoughts and ideas of students, administration, and faculty. Some traditions have been kept while others have been broken.

First, I would like to express my appreciation to all of the students on the staff for their hard work and for their sacrifice of many after school hours to make this a yearbook of which we can all be proud.

Ms. Dora Dillistone, BUFFALO sponsor, deserves many thanks for her unique ideas and for her work to make this the best yearbook possible. Hers was not an easy task, but the entire staff hopes she is pleased with the product.

Mr. Claude Brinkley, Mr. Ernest Dickerson, and Mrs. Sarah Smith were always available when their help was needed. I would especially like to thank Mrs. Smith for her patience and understanding in finding solutions to all the problems brought to her. Not only the administration, but also the faculty has been most helpful and cooperative.

Finally, in expressing my appreciation, I cannot omit someone who has given unselfishly of her time although she is no longer on the Milby faculty — Mrs. Karen Stephens. I am truly indebted to her for her guidance and expertise.

I hope that every student in Milby will find some very personal memories of this year in the 1977 BUFFALO. The true value of a yearbook cannot be measured today; it must stand the test of time. The sponsor and staff of the BUFFALO have tried to produce a book that will become of even greater value to you, the students, as the years go by . . .

Wayne Cook, Editor-in-Chief

I would like to extend my deepest appreciation to the 1976-77 BUFFALO staff for producing a book the student body can look back on with pride and fond memories, a book that reflects the image and many changing moods of Milby High School. The cooperation of all the students, faculty, and administration deserves extra thanks and apologies for our many intrusions. We hope you find this book a tangible reflection of our gratitude.

Dora Dillistone, Sponsor
