1938

Mrs Urdin -

Enclosed are 3 Milby #2 yearbooks that belonged to my aunt, La Belle Crowe Callaway; her husband, Wayne Callaway, and his brother, Jack Callaway.

I thought the library would have better use of them than I would. La Belle and Wayne didn't have children and Jack was killed in WWII before he had a chance to marry.

Thank you.

Foreword

This book has been planned and edited to preserve the glorious memories of the high school careers of the 1938 graduating class and to make a permanent picture of the happenings of the school year.

The staff offers it with the hope that in future years it will recall many happy recollections for the 1938 students of Milby.

"Round-Up Time In Milby"

Now; when, it's round-up time in Milby,
 And it's time to cut the "Herd;"
 And all the "Buffalo" boys and girls,
 Are dressed to the latest word.
 And "everyone" is happy,
 "Except" the Parting Band;
 W'll sing "God bless you Milby,"
 And give you "Royal" hand.
 And when we stand before the "Master,"
 And His riders "cut" our band;
 Let's hope there's not a one of us,
 Who doesn't get the "Brand."

Oh, we've tried to please you Milby.
 And live up to your name—
 We wish you all the happiness,
 This "Der Old World" contains.
 You know we love you Milby,
 And you know we're standing by—
 And though we're going into the world,
 You'll always hold our eye.
 So for all of the Seniors,

And the "Leader of our Band;
 I wish you all the happiness,
 Of a school so true and grand.
 Milby, you've treated us decent,
 You've made us feel at home.
 We're not like our name-sake—
 We don't care to roam.
 We'd rather stay here at Milby,
 And hear your "Battle-song,"
 We know you're 'gonna' win again—
 "Our" Milby, "The Strong."
 We hail a spirit impassible—
 Love that grows day by day—
 We're for you "Dear old Milby,"
 And we hope your spirit will stay.
 You know—we just can't help feeling,
 That it's here our "Futures" were made.
 For futures are like our homes—
 They're not—until the "Foundation's" laid.
 You've treated us swell Milby,
 And I know we'll never forget.
 We'll always have our love for you—
 And we'll meet again—yet.

—Carleton D. Williams—2-21-38

Dedication

In appreciation of her long friendship to Milby, the loyal support she has always rendered to the students and faculty, and her continued interest and unmatched enthusiasm for all student activities; and because she is held in the highest esteem by all who know her, we the Annual staff of 1938 dedicate this volume VII of The Buffalo to Mrs. Charles H. Milby.

Charles H. Milby Senior High

Home of the Buffaloes

These views show the old and new of Milby High School where for twelve years students of the East End have spent many hours of work and play in an attempt to broaden their education and prepare themselves for the road that lay ahead.

During these years many students have brought honor to the Blue and Gold in every conceivable field and received in exchange experience which enabled them to step out on the highway of responsibility better able to cope with life's problems.

Now 261 graduates of 1938 prepare to go out into a new field of life and to greater responsibility. They too will lead a fuller life because of "Dear Old Milby" and the cherished memories of their high school alma mater.

Senior Class History

In the year 1935 the present class of Milby High School made its first awkward entrance as lowly sophomores. The majority of these creatures were products of Deady, Jackson and Edison Junior High Schools.

After a year of working and of suffering that usually accompanies the soph, Milby's young'uns became full pledged juniors. Their noses shot skyward, they dashed in and out like they owned the place, appeared to know everything, and regarded the poor soph as a creature unfit for notice.

Even though the high and mighty Junior did know practically everything, he found that second year "plenty tough."

On Sept. 19, 1937, the once lowly sophomore was crowned senior and his work as a student of higher learning was drawn to an end.

Only now, at the time of parting do we seniors realize how we love dear old Milby. Our three year pause here on the path of life, shall be remembered forever as one of the most joyous stops along the way.

Not until the present time did we realize how indebted we are to our teachers, especially our senior registrars, Miss Marguerite Brennan, Miss Dorothea Bright, Mr. J. B. Hendrix, Mrs. Ralph Looney, Miss Beatrice Matthaei, and Mrs. Blanche Grover, for their splendid guidance and co-operation.

With the highest affection we shall forever remember Milby.

- Oct. 23 Jefferson Davis, led by Tommy Lobue knocked the Buffaloes on their proverbial ear by the score of 25-0.
- Oct. 28. After having had 102 points scored against them without crossing the opponents goal a single time, Milby met a team of her own size and strength, the result—Milby 20, Lamar 7. Cleve Reber passed twice to Lucas and Wells and Stevens galloped 30 yards for the third touchdown.
- Nov. 6. Reagan, with the powerhouse attack defeated the herd by a lopsided score of 32-0.
- Nov. 11 All that happened on this day of peace is not peaceful! The Buffs lengthened their run of victories over the Sam Houston Tigers to three straight as the Buffs won desperately contested battle 6-0.
- Nov. 18 In sub-freezing weather on a gridiron standing in water, the Battling Buffaloes held a highly touted Austin team to a 6-0 score for a moral victory to close out the season and the high school football career of 17 loyal Milbyites.

BASKETBALL

- Jan. 11 San Jacinto's favored quintet took the Buffs into camp, 27-19 in the opening game of the season.

- Feb. 8 Meeting its strongest foe of the season, the Buffs went down to a close 2-1 defeat. The Toms flashed too much reserve power for the weak reserved Bison team.

Football

This was the starting team at one stage of the season: The line; Lucas, Kempf, Honea, Garsee, Kieke, Blackburn, and Stevens.

CLEVE REBER—A sophomore flash; passer deluxe.

JOE McQUILLAN—A shifty-hipped sophomore speedster. Co-captain for next season.

BILLY KIEKE—Guard, quarter and halfback. A senior letterman, a nice blocker.

WARREN SCHLIEF—A slam-bang style of player who performed in a tackle slot.

HARRY BOARD—A guard, senior letterman; nice blocker.

EDGAR SPRADLEY—A lanky end who performed brilliantly last year.

MORTON GARSEE — A three year letterman for the Buffaloes. Morton finished his eligibility by being honored with a place on the all-city second team.

EARNEST LUCAS—Outstanding end, scored first touchdown of season. "Sweatpea" is a senior.

COACH DURRENBERGER — Looks 'em over.
3 hair

JOHN HONEA—A slam-bang style of player who held down a tackle slot. Honea is only a junior.

DICK RICHARDSON—A "fight to the last ditch" player who played quarter and halfback.

WOODROW RUTHSTROM—A splendid punter and line-bucker deluxe. Woodrow, unfortunately, was out most of the season with injuries.

GEORGE STEVENS—A small but determined performer who played full and halfback for Coach Durrenberger's charges.

Champion Icers

Wings: Warren Schlieff, Jessie Bonneau. Center: Carl Dahlgren.
 Defense: Herbert Schwecke, Alfred Charleston. Goalie: Harry Board, Billy Kieke.
 Manager: James McGrew.

CAPTAIN CARL "KELLY" DAHLGREN

is captain and ace center for the Buff skaters. He finished his eligibility this year by leading Milby to the public and city high school championship for the first time in the school's eleven years existence. Last year Kelly scored 28 goals for a new city record and returned this year as high scorer with 22 goals. His nearest rival scored only 8! It will be a big problem to find a player to take this skaters place when the next hockey season rolls around.

WILLIAM BURNS caught tossing the discus on the practice field.

Track

The 1938 edition of the Buffaloes track team sent two qualifiers, Harold Hall and Floyd Boston, to the state meet at Austin, and they brought back the championship of Texas for the Blue and Gold of Milby.

Here's a group of Milbyites
Out to win the game
In interscholastic contests here—
To give our school a name.

There's no one like a hockey whizz
The lassie to entice.
And Kelly here, with skates in hand,
Is one great guy on ice.

Oh, Mr. Long, our teacher dear,
What lady fair now have you here?

There was a young lover called "Durst,"
Whose Dilemma was really the worst.
If you'd ask him to eat,
He would look at his feet,
And say, "Let me ask Wanda first."

There's nothing like a swell school dance
To get the kids together.
James and Callie seem quite gay;
Could it be the weather?

We had here the "cream o' the crop,"
And a teacher who rated the top.
And we all miss him here,
For he's been gone a year.
We'll never forget dear old "Pop"

The eternal triangle again here prevails,
But the three seem contented, I guess.
The lassie is darling, so boys, strut your stuff.
Here's to the gay youth who is best.

This little soph once ate no lunch;
Some mice beat her to eating.
She set a mouse-trap, as you see,
So now the mice she's beating.

There once was a dear, jolly dean,
Who never learned how to be mean.
Many friends are her lot,
And she's right on the spot—
And the spot really isn't so lean.

10

Swing, Dumas, swing your gal—
Liven up the old corral!

11

Mavis, why that stern, cold glance?
The scene could start a fine romance.

There were two sad, sad little lads,
 Who seemed to think teachers were "cads."
 They gazed into space, yearning crossing
 each face,
 To get from these school-worry fads.

Warble, warble, trill and trill.
 "Dumas," our songbird we see,
 And yell-leader, Katherine Lee.

Here ye, hear ye, Milbyites,
 "Soap-box" is on the stage.
 The camera snapped this relic when
 Spiked haircuts were the rage.

Presenting a scene at the Valentine dance,
 We spy dancers resting a bit.
 Everyone seems to having great fun;
 The frolic was fairly a hit!

Introducing our Cadettes,
 Those uniforms that shine,
 We think they look too mingled here.
 Come, Co-eds, fall in line.

It's grand to hear a soothing voice
 Speak through the microphone.
 What message have you here for us?
 Hail, poet,—Milby's own.

There was a young lady who had
 Some worry that made her feel sad.
 We should like to know why
 She does sit there and sigh—
 We wish that she'd smile and be glad

A little squabble now and then
 Is just a thing to please.
 It really couldn't be bad, 'cause
 "Two-gun" looks on with ease.

Here's a trouper, here's a pal,
 As helping as can be.
 She is the Milby one swell friend—
 A sweet necessity.

Ode to the Milby Sea

By June Siegert

I must go down to the sea again—
To the lonely sea and the sky;
But the duties of my school work call,
And I cannot pass them by.

I should like to wade in the salty waves,
And plunge into the foam.
Oh, to hear the gulls' cry day by day,
Oh, to call the sea my home.

But at school I stay yet—on and on,
And the sea comes down to me.
And I wade in glory right at school;
All hail the Milby Sea!

What After High School?

Let Massey introduce you to an office position in keeping with your educational background. We do not promise to make of you a business executive; but we will train you for, and place you in a starting position where your talents and education will open to you opportunities without limit.

We are receiving constantly more calls from employers for Massey graduates than we have available to fill the very desirable office positions open to them.

We invite your investigation of our record in starting High School graduates on the road to success.
