Dedication

Not in brick or stone, not in wall or turret, not in land or gold is found the spirit of a school; but in the free laughter of happy social groups; in the gay camaraderie of classmates and friends; in the high faith of optimistic youth; in the warm reverence for home and school; in the fair competition for success in athletic prowess, military honors, forensic fame, or scholarly attainment—-it is through these manifestations of the reaching soul that true school spirit is revealed. To this spirit—the Milby Spirit—we proudly dedicate this annual.

FAIR MILBY

O. Milby, fair Milby,
Your sun shall ever rise
In glory and beauty
Throughout the Texas skies.
Together we'll honor
And praise your noble name,
And fight for those golden
Buff'loes,
Thund'ring o'er the plain.

One of the most popular attractions on the Milby social calendar is the annual May Fete. The queen and her court are chosen by the student body.

Since the coronation occurs after the yearbook goes to press, the picture of the king and queen of the previous year is used in each edition.

In 1947 Queen Barbara of the House of Bartlett and King Theodore of the House of Montz were chosen to reign over the royal court.
