

Sean Tellez (Assistant Principal – Creative Writing, Instrumental & Vocal) is now in his fourth year serving the students, parents, faculty, and staff of Kinder HSPVA. From Hurricane Harvey to COVID-19 and moving campuses in between, Mr. Tellez is ready to work through any challenge and is excited to continue to bring his abilities and work drive to our campus. Mr. Tellez holds a Bachelor of Arts in Composite Social Studies and a Master of Arts in Teaching from Trinity University in San Antonio, TX. Prior to coming to HSPVA, Mr. Tellez taught a variety of both academic and AP social studies courses and coached soccer at the High School for Law and Justice in Houston ISD. Mr. Tellez also has taught social studies at Cristo Rey Jesuit College Preparatory School in Southeast Houston. He is a Houston native, graduating from Jersey Village High School where he pursued music as a four-year choir member and earned a vocal music scholarship to Trinity. He knows firsthand the value and impact of the arts and is excited to lead and support the work at such a prestigious institution at Kinder HSPVA and be of service to its' students, parents, faculty, and staff.
