

Angela Apte joined HSPVA in 2013 as full-time faculty in the Creative Writing Department. Ms. Apte studied journalism and English at Marquette University and holds a Master of Fine Arts from Virginia Commonwealth University where she was awarded two writing fellowships and the American Academy of Poets Catherine and Joan Byrne Poetry Prize. After stints in the newspaper business in Wisconsin and Texas, she began her career teaching in HISD and is so very happy to have landed at HSPVA where her son graduated from the Piano Department not so long ago. In her spare time, Ms. Apte enjoys traveling and spending time with her dogs and husband, not necessarily in that order.
