

Dr. Marlene Blandon-Ohaka joins Kinder HSVPA with years of teaching and administrative experience at the intermediate, middle, and high school levels. Dr. Blandon completed her undergraduate work at Georgia State University in Atlanta and her graduate work culminating in a Doctorate of Education from Texas Southern University.

Dr. Blandon-Ohaka is passionate about secondary education and leads through an instructional, student-first lens. In her off time, she enjoys singing in her church choir and has done so for several years.