

Rozie Curtis

Acting Faculty

Teaching Acting Level 1-4

Rozie Curtis, graduate of St. Edward's University, comes to HSPVA from Clear Springs High School in League City and prior to that Theatre Under The Stars (TUTS). She has more than 20 years of diverse theatre experience as an actor, director, choreographer, writer, community leader, and educator.

At TUTS, she helped create the acting curriculum for the HSMT Academy. Also at TUTS, she has directed: School House Rock Live Jr., Dual Language Aladdin, My Son Pinocchio Jr., RENT (High School version), CAMP Rock, The Little Mermaid Jr.; High School Musical and big the musical. She also worked with Disney to direct the premier of Lion King Jr at JTF in Atlanta, GA. She continues to create productions for TUTS/River Program. This program works with students with disabilities. At Clear Springs, she directed and choreographed many Tommy Tune nominated productions winning best musical, Urinetown. She is an award-winning film director, stage director, writer, and choreographer. She is a regular for film, commercials, TV work, and voice-over actor in animes. Her private students have landed major roles on Broadway, National Tours, Film and TV.