

The goal for our students at the DeBakey High School for Health Professions' is to commit themselves to producing academic work of integrity. Although the faculty and administration play a role in accomplishing the goals of the Honor Code, the main responsibility in ensuring these standards are met lies with each individual student. It is the responsibility of each student to fully understand the Honor Code and its regulations as they relate to each class.

Any ambiguities regarding acceptable levels of cooperation for any assignment should be clarified with the teachers before doing the assignment.

Plagiarism in any form is a most serious Honor Code violation; it includes translation from one language to another without citing the source.

Lack of knowledge regarding Honor Code, class guidelines, or teacher expectations cannot be used as an excuse for violating the Honor Code.

Cheating and/or academic dishonesty violates the standards of our community, as well as the standards of the wider world of learning and affairs.
