

2021-2022 Lanier Uniform Policy

All students attending Lanier Middle School are required to wear the Lanier School Uniform as defined in the following policy. All articles of the uniform are to be maintained and worn in a way that presents the individual student and the school in a positive fashion.

All articles of the uniform are to fit properly without holes, cuts, rips, or tears. There should be no alterations or additional personalization made to the original garments. It is up to administrative discretion to determine if a student's garments are not appropriate for school.
