

With reports of a fire burning at the KMCO chemical plant in east Harris County on Tuesday afternoon, all outdoor activities at campuses in the east and north areas of the Houston Independent School District have been cancelled today (Tuesday, April 2). No afterschool activities will take place at Furr and North Forest high schools. Baseball games at Cowart Stadium have been cancelled. The soccer playoff match of Furr vs. Stafford will be relocated from Cowart Stadium to Dyer Stadium, 2020 Mangum Rd., 77092

The affected HISD campuses are:

- Austin High School
- BCM Biotech Academy at Rusk
- Bonner Elementary School
- Briscoe Elementary School
- Burnet Elementary School
- Cage Elementary School
- Carrillo Elementary School
- Chavez High School
- Chrysalis Middle School
- Crespo Elementary School
- Davila Elementary School
- Deady Middle School
- DeZavala Elementary School
- East Early College High School
- Eastwood Academy
- Edison Middle School
- Elmore Elementary School
- Fonwood Early Childhood Center
- Forest Brook Middle School
- Franklin Elementary School
- Furr High School
- Gallegos Elementary School
- J.R. Harris Elementary School
- R.P. Harris Elementary School
- High School for Law and Justice
- Hilliard Elementary School
- Houston Educational Learning Center
- Lantrip Elementary School
- Lorenzo Early Childhood Center
- Lewis Elementary School
- Marshall Elementary School
- McGowen Elementary School
- Middle College HS – Fraga
- Milby High School
- Mount Carmel Academy High School

- Navarro Middle School
- North Forest High School
- Oates Elementary School
- Ortiz Middle School
- Park Place Elementary School
- Patterson Elementary School
- Pleasantville Elementary School
- Port Houston Elementary School
- Robinson Elementary School
- Rucker Elementary School
- Sanchez Elementary School
- Shadydale Elementary School
- Southmayd Elementary School
- Stevenson Middle School
- Tijerina Elementary School
- Whittier Elementary School
- Young Scholars