

Houston Independent School District
Volunteers In Public Schools 50th Anniversary

WHEREAS, parents, business partners, and other devoted citizens have pledged their unyielding commitment to students for the betterment of public education. Since 1970, thousands of volunteers have willingly shared their time and talents to support the Houston Independent School District; and,

WHEREAS, Volunteers in Public Schools recruits thousands of parents and community partners to donate their time, resources and knowledge in support of the district's primary goal to increase student achievement; and,

WHEREAS, generations of Houstonians have been impacted by the selfless contributions made by generous volunteers in public schools. Our young learners will continue to benefit immensely from their encouragement and guidance; and,

WHEREAS, on April 23, 2021, the Houston Independent School District will celebrate the 50th anniversary of Volunteers in Public Schools by proudly and gratefully saluting its dedicated volunteers; and,

WHEREAS, the City of Houston recognizes that the quality of our schools is vital to the continuing the welfare and prosperity of our city and is pleased to join Houston Independent School District in its salute to its volunteers and 50th Anniversary of Volunteers in Public Schools.

THEREFORE, I, Sylvester Turner, Mayor of the City of Houston, hereby proclaim April 23, 2021, as

Houston Independent School District Day
Volunteers In Public Schools 50th Anniversary

in Houston, Texas.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and have caused the Official Seal of the City of Houston to be affixed this 8th day of April, 2021.

Sylvester Turner
Mayor of the City of Houston
