

Ranch Life Summer Workshop!

Saddle up for some fun as the same cast of characters you've come to know and love in the Hank the Cowdog series gives you a first-class introduction to life on a ranch!

National Ranching Heritage Center Ranch Life Workshop

The National Ranching Heritage Center will offer a free virtual summer workshop for Houston ISD educators. Come learn about the Ranch Life Series with presenters Julie Hodges and Jenny Gaona.

- Thursday, June 24 10:30AM to 12PM (Virtual via Microsoft Teams)

Ranch Life Book 1: Ranching & Livestock and accompanying activities.

1. How to use the activity guide.
2. Reading Strategies
3. Social Studies Topics
4. Science Topics
5. Bonus Content

Topics covered in the book: the differences between a ranch and a farm, how cattle digest grass, the business side of ranching, how to care for cattle throughout the various seasons, and more!

If you are interested in attending, please contact

Echos Blevins

Sr. Program Specialist, Career and Technical Education

713-556-6981 (phone)

Echos.Blevins@houstonisd.org (email)

Thanks to grant funding from the CH Foundation, the National Ranching Heritage Center is able to provide educators that attend Ranch Life Workshop books and materials for free!

- A classroom set of Ranch Life Books
- Activity Binder
- A Hank the Cowdog cutout for your classroom

LEARN MORE AT WWW.RANCLIFELEARNING.COM