Mrs. Mims and Ms. Hinson explored a great Professional Development opportunity during the Thanksgiving holiday break.

They went to the opening day of Kehinde Wiley's exhibit at the Museum of Fine Arts - Houston and engaged in a curatorial panel discussion on the exhibition. These ladies are passionate about bringing great art to our students!

During this event, they gained lots of new ideas for the YWCPA art car project and an invitation for our scholars to visit the Art Museum on the campus of Texas Southern University again.

YWCPA Senior ROSE, Brooklyn Williams, was saluted for her exceptional work as an Intern at HillDay Corporation!
