

Secondary Resources

ABC-CLIO is a high school social studies resource. School access single sign-on. Home access requires login..

BrainPop provides various resources supporting many areas of the curriculum for elementary and middle schools. Login is required for school and home access. This resource is funded by the HISD Special Education Department.

Britannica School is an online encyclopedia for all levels. This is a state-provided resource via TexQuest. Login required for home access.

Britannica Spanish is an online encyclopedia in Spanish for all levels. This is a state-provided resource via TexQuest. Login required for at-home access.

Discovery Streaming

Education is a digital video-based learning resource.

Access provided through is page is only for non-classroom teachers and requires a unique login which can be obtained via campus library personnel. All classroom teachers and students must access Discovery Streaming through the Digital Resources page on the HUB. Access through the HUB is single sign-on.

Ebsco eBooks is a digital bookshelf providing both fiction and nonfiction ebooks for all levels. eBooks cannot be downloaded. Login required for at-home access.

Sebco eBooks are digital editions of print titles with advanced capabilities that accelerate learning. Access directions can be found on the Summer Reading Program page.

Follett Shelf provides digital editions of print titles with advanced capabilities that accelerate learning. Books can be accessed through Destiny and can be checked out.

Gale TexQuest provides access to several products including Literature Resource Center and Student Resource Center Gold. This is a state-provided resource via TexQuest. Login required for school and home access.

Learn360 is a video streaming service proved via TexQuest. Over 150,000 videos are available for K-12 students and teachers.