COURSE DESCRIPTION

English Language Arts and Reading (ELAR) is a core content area taught not only to pass the STAAR test, but also to function within our society in a positive manner. The ELAR teachers will follow the Tenacity, Excellence, Achievement, and Motivation standards in providing a well-rounded learning atmosphere for every Scholar. This course will provide the knowledge and skills needed to increase the Scholar's ability to communicate, process, and understand a higher order of thinking while following the TEKS.

COURSE OBJECTIVES/COMPETENCIES:

Reading, Writing, Vocabulary, and Listening/Speaking Objectives
Students will identify literary elements in fiction. Recall elements and details of story structure, such as sequence of events, character, plot and setting and answer open response questions using evidence from the text. Identify and summarize the elements of plot developments in various works of fiction build upon vocabulary through literature, discussion, spelling and word study. Support ideas about characterization orally. Write a personal narrative that has a clear focus that communicates the importance of actions and/or consequences.

REQUIRED TEXT: available through class or school Library

REQUIRED ASSIGNMENTS/ACTIVITIES

Make-up Work

Scholars will be allowed to make-up tests, quizzes or class work once notification/documentation of the absence has been submitted.

CLASS POLICIES

- Scholars are expected to follow the guidelines for writing the assignments provided for each assignment.
- All assignments will include: the header on the first page of your assignment will contain a descriptive title for the paper/assignment in the top right-hand corner: your name, ELAR (period), Assignment title, and date.
Example: Jose Gonzalez
ELAR- Period 4
Expository Essay
September 1, 2017
- Scholars have an option to turn in assignments either on paper or electronically. All electronic assignments are to be submitted through the google docs. Name the files that you send to the instructor according to the number of assignment. Example: Your last name_first name_period_title:
Example: Gonzalez_Jose_P4_Expository Essay
- Each assignment should be submitted BY THE DUE DATE to obtain full credit. Late assignments will receive full credit only when legitimate reasons (example- illness, religious observances, etc.) warrant the lateness. Such arrangements should be made in advance with the teacher. For assignments turned in late that do not meet the above conditions, 5 points will be deducted for each day an assignment is handed in late. In addition, the instructor reserves the right to add additional reading assignments, or mandatory after school tutorials.
- Academic Expectations: All Scholars are expected to maintain professional behavior, which includes the highest standard of integrity and honesty. For a Scholar to be promoted to the next grade level, an overall yearly average of 70 or above is required for all courses. If a Scholar misses more than the allowable days of school, and does not complete make-up work for days missed, course grade(s) will result in no grade (NG), which may result in retention in the current grade level. This policy will assist the scholar to be successful in this course. Please contact the teacher should you have any questions.
