Black History Month Celebration: February 28

BCMA@Ryan will celebrate Black History Month on Wednesday, February 28 with the show "The Sound of Us: A Timeless Tribute to African American Music." The show will pay tribute to such African American greats as Michael Jackson, Anita Baker, the cast of The Color Purple and Dream Girls just to name a few.

During intermission there will be a Small, Black Business Expose in which local businesses will be advertising and promoting their services as booths in the cafeteria.

The show runs from 6:30-8:30pm and admission is free.

In December 8th grader Jaida Bell won a $75 gift certificate for being one of science teacher Jamaur Barnes' most consistent students in maintaining high academic standards.

The raffle for the prize was held for students who had at least 6 A's and no more than 4 B's throughout the entire semester.

This semester the prize will be $100 for the student with no less than 8 A's and 2 B's. Be sure to have your student enter the raffle!

New semester, new art teacher

BMCA@Ryan welcomes Mary Ann Wosenitz as our new art teacher. With 8 years of teaching experience, Ms. Wosenitz has a master's degree in teaching with a special focus on visual arts from Rice University. She is on the Houston Livestock Show & Rodeo Art Auction Committee to help raise scholarship money for competing art students. She looks forward to meeting her new students.

Our Robotics team “A Bunch of Lunch” won 1st Place in Robot Performance and Mechanical Design category at the South Regional FLL championship out of a total of 260 teams. Nicely done!

Our journalism students visited a neighborhood organic produce coop store, NuWaters Co-op, interviewed the owner, took copious notes and will produce brochure for creating awareness about neighborhood businesses. Thank you to reading teacher Jean Harris and co-op manager Carmen.
