Mark your calendars with upcoming ADOBE workshops!

Powered by Adobe for Education

Enrich your learning with in-depth professional development designed by educators for educators and delivered by authorized Training Partners.

Podcasts for Academics: February 28, 1pm PT

1:00pm - 2:30pm (PST)

Podcasting is a great forum for academic discussion which captures the nuances of debate and analysis without the need for time-consuming video editing or set-up.

Master the essentials of Adobe Audition to create branded series of podcasts that capture the essence of your studies, thinking, and field of expertise. Great for building communities of learning around your specialism.

Free 1.5 Hour Workshop

Storytelling with Videos for Educators: March 7, 1pm PT

1:00pm - 2:30pm (PST)

This workshop is a perfect solution for enhancing your skills using Adobe Express and Rush for presenting and communicating in compelling ways. Presented by Edge Gain.

Understanding how to transform a field of study into a compelling narrative presents opportunities for instructors and students to reach their audience. Using storytelling principles and visual language can help break down and translate complex ideas, or argue a strategy, philosophy or method which, in turn, can generate support, extra funding or further advocacy. Learn how Adobe's video tools can help academics tell the story of their research and work.
