

REVENUE, TAX AND REGULATIONS

Felicia K. Bovell, Instructor

Welcome to Revenue, Tax and Regulations. This course will introduce students to a broad base of knowledge that includes payroll taxes, federal income withholdings, the operations, sales, and management of revenue, tax and regulations (IRS instructions) to gain a complete understanding of how the federal government function within the society. In addition, students will develop knowledge and skills in the economical, financial, technological, international, social, and ethical aspects of money management to become competent consumers, employees, and entrepreneurs.

LEARNING CENTER RULES AND EXPECTATIONS

- Students are expected to enter the classroom quietly and on time. A professional attitude should be maintained at all times.
- All materials and supplies should be on your desk when the bell rings. All students will complete a brainstorm or focus activity before class begins.
- NO GUM, FOOD, or DRINKS will be allowed in the Learning Center Room.
- All students are expected to turn their class assignments in on time. Students will have 5 days to complete make-up work and/or missed tests/quizzes.
- You are encouraged to use the restrooms and get water before the tardy bell rings.

GRADING/EVALUATION

Students will be given frequent feedback of overall performance in the course. Evaluation will be based on the following criterion. NOTE: Errors are costly, 5-points each. Please learn early on to proof your work. We are not perfect, but we must strive for perfection.
