Agenda with Approximate Time Limits:

1. Do Now - students will enter class and think and journal about the following writing prompt. "Read Jim Heynen's "What Happened During the Ice Storm." If you were to turn the title "What Happened During the Ice Storm into a question, what would your answer be?"
2. Direct Instruction - Read-aloud and discussion of the story. Read the first paragraph. Pose questions such as "What are the effects of the freezing rain throughout the first paragraph? Continue reading the rest of the story and have students focus on the dual nature of the ice storm. Students will continue to read the rest of the story independently focusing on observing the contrast between farmer's actions and the boy's actions regarding the pheasant. Use Guided Questions such as: Why did the farmers leave their houses? How do you know? Why did the boys leave their houses? How do you know?
3. Independent Work/Guided Practice - Students will partner up to answer the question, "How does a sense of danger to the pheasants gradually build as the story unfolds. Once partners have discussed the question prompt, they will use the sentence stem: "The sense of danger to the pheasants gradually builds because of _____."
4. Exit Ticket: Students will answer the question "How would the story's ending be different if you took out "unsure of their footing" in the first sentence"

Formative Assessment: Popsicle sticks, randomizers, white boards, clickers, Lead4ward CFU app, etc.

Modifications: Sentence Stems, speaking stems, anchor charts, word walls, bilingual dictionaries, etc

Intervention: Underline key words and phrases one paragraph at a time. Visual vocabulary activities for EB students.

Extension: Independent reading journal

Follow-Up/Homework: 20 Minutes of Independent Reading
