4 Wrestlers Headed to State

By Coach Froehlich

The Westside Wrestling team will be sending a third of their entire boys team to the STATE tournament this weekend, as they qualified FOUR boys for STATE at the Region III 6A Championships this past weekend.

The Wolves put three boys into the regional finals, with Sophomore Kyle Lew winning a Regional Championship.

The following boys qualified for the State Championships at the Berry Center this weekend:

106- (9) Santi Ramirez- (40-11) 2nd Place (Ramirez is the first Westside freshman wrestler to ever make the regional finals and only the 3rd Westside freshman to ever qualify for the STATE tournament)

113- (11) Juan Cantu- (44-4) (Returning State Placer, All American, this is Cantu's second trip to the STATE tournament)

138- Kyle Lew- (43-3) (Lew is only the second wrestler in Westside history to win regionals as a sophomore, the other is two-time National Champion from Texas A&M, Ty'Rae Carter)

160- Freddie Pagan- (42-6) (Pagan caps off his senior year as a; 2X Team Captain, 4X district Champion, 3X Regional Placemaker, 2X STATE qualifier, and returning STATE placemaker)

We are also VERY proud of our first ever girls team freshman placemaker, Madison Nguyen!

Madison place 6th at the 95lb weight class in her first year at Westside! Great job Madison!

Proud of our Wolves!
