Hundreds of students from Wheatley feeder pattern heading back to school in style

Annual program providing hair care services, school supplies

WHAT: U.S. Rep. Sheila Jackson Lee will host a haircut and hairstyling back-to-school event for students in the Wheatley High School feeder pattern. Students will receive hair care services at no cost courtesy of the Franklin Beauty and Barber Institute and the She’s Happy Hair Foundation.

Backpacks filled with school supplies will also be provided to students. Food, entertainment, and activities for children will be provided at no cost to families.

Wheatley High School students, along with those in its feeder pattern at Atherton, Bruce, Dogan, Eliot, Issacs, Nat Q. Henderson, Pugh, R. Martinez, and Scroggins elementary schools and Fleming and McReynolds middle schools are invited to the event.

All Houston Independent School District students return to classes for the 2019-2020 academic year on August 26.

WHEN: Sunday, August 25
Noon - 5 p.m.

WHERE: Wheatley High School
4801 Providence St., 77020