THE INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES EDUCATION IMPROVEMENT ACT OF 2004 (IDEA 2004) REQUIRES THAT TIMELY AND MEANINGFUL CONSULTATION OCCUR BETWEEN THE LOCAL SCHOOL DISTRICT AND PRIVATE, RELIGIOUS, OR HOME SCHOOL OFFICIALS PRIOR TO ANY DECISION THAT AFFECTS THE LOCATION, IDENTIFICATION, AND PROVISION OF SERVICES TO PARENTALLY PLACED PRIVATE SCHOOL CHILDREN ATTENDING PRIVATE SCHOOLS WITHIN THE JURISDICTION OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOL DISTRICT.

SECTION II – Topics of Consultation

The following topics were addressed during the consultation process:

- The Child Find Process and how parentally placed private, religious, or home school children, suspected of having a disability, can participate equitably in special education and related services
- How parents, teachers, and private, religious or home school officials will be informed of the process
- The determination of the proportionate amount of federal funds available to serve parentally placed private, religious or home school children with disabilities, including determination of how the amount was calculated
- How the consultation process will operate throughout the school year to ensure that parentally placed private, religious, or home school children with disabilities identified through the Child Find process can participate in special education and related services
- How, where, and by whom types of special education and related services will be provided for parentally placed private, religious, or home school children with disabilities
- How to conduct the annual count of the number of parentally placed private, religious or home school children with disabilities attending school within the boundaries of HISD
- How such services will be apportioned if funds are insufficient to serve all children in private, religious, and home schools, and how and when these decisions will be made
- How HISD will provide a written explanation to the private, religious or home school official of reasons, why HISD chose not to provide services directly or through a contract if HISD disagrees with the views of the private, religious, or home school official on the provision of services or types of services

SECTION III – Affirmation of Participation of Private, Religious, or Home School

Yes ☐ No ☐ For All Private, Religious, or Home Schools:

We agree that timely and meaningful consultation of the above topics occurred before the school district made any decision that affected the participation of eligible private, religious, and home school children in HISD special education services as described in the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act of 2004 (IDEA 2004).
