Principal's Corner

We are gearing up to provide accelerated instruction for students who qualify under HB4545. Our 10, 11 and 12th graders have received notification of the requirement to attend these accelerated instruction sessions. English 1 & 2 are Mondays and Wednesdays and Algebra 1 will be held Tuesdays and Thursdays. These sessions will begin October 10th and will run from 4:30-6:30 p.m.

Biology will be done in the spring. More information will be coming for US History in the coming weeks. Freshman should begin receiving notification soon.

For more information, please contact Mr. Thompson at kthompso@houstonisd.org.

This the last week to pick up your homecoming T-Shirts. Students can pick them up during lunch at the athletic lobby. We also have the homecoming dance this Saturday! Students who are attending are required to bring their IDs, as well as their receipts to enter the dance.

We are able to create a suitable plan for expanding homecoming and making available 500 more tickets. I want to thank STUCO for their hard work and extraordinary flexibility to make this event unforgettable for more students. We will have food, karaoke and a photo booth in the Grand Hall and our DJ and dancing will be in the gym. Utilizing the gym will allow for a larger attendance, but also requires athletic shoes.

Here is what you need to know:

TICKETS

- Tickets are available on schoolpay and in the Business Office.
- The link will close when we sell out of tickets or at midnight on Friday, whichever comes first.
- NO TICKETS WILL BE SOLD AT THE DOOR.
- Tickets cannot be re-sold. Your name must be on the list as the person who purchased the ticket or you will not be admitted.

ENTRY

- Students will enter at the Grand Hall through the Transit Center
- Students will be checked upon entry.
- No outside food or beverages.
- No bags.

DRESS

- Regular standards of dress apply.
- Since the DJ and dancing will be in the gym, you will be required to have on athletic shoes to enter the area.
- Dress shoes can be stored in our "Shoe Check".
