- Panic Buttons do not say room numbers
- A Certain AP is not supporting his teachers/students correctly and that needs to be CORRECTED in Multiple levels.
- Offices do not hold students accountable for $15 for Phone/Air Pods
- Tighten School Rules
- Tutorials in Cafeteria:
 - A Log for Dismissal/ Tutorials
 - Passes for tutorials
 - Some Students do not do good with Online Learning so is that beneficial?
 - Are our students actually learning? If not, can the teacher keep them.

Meeting Notes:

- Highlighted Names Attended the meeting

Attendance Incentives:

- Everyone did look at the Incentives and like the incentives:
 - Muhammad did ask about frequent flyers as far as those that aren't attending school. Randall says there is a mix of absent.
 - Gallier mentioned that teachers do not get to miss that many days (NEXT MEETING)

Discipline System Feedback:

- Vaping on campus needs serious consequences- Mrs. Randall shared Stevenson follows the HISD student code of conduct for all vaping cases.
- Air Pods – issues in halls-
- Students that show up High – Names will be taken, and a special Dragon Time Meeting will be put in place (Mentor Program)
- Gallier – talks about the lack of discipline that teachers are complaining about. Recommends that we increase detentions to hold students accountable
- All AGREE Lunch detention is not affective and Computers in ATS is not affective.
- ATS and Detention Ideas:
 - Detention should not be free time or time to finish homework
 - ATS: Paper ONLY, collect backpacks, collect phones, and paper assignments.
- Purple behavior Logs:
 - Positive feedback from some teachers that have received the folders
 - Negative feedback – teachers aren't in the loop on what happened.

Follow-Up Items:

- Randall to meet with admin regarding detentions and Behavior Log Feedback
