Unit Overview: In this unit, students will Consume and Critique realistic fiction and Produce (O‘Flahavan) personal narratives utilizing the literary elements found in mentor text. As students consume and critique mentor texts, they will notice what this genre Must Have, Might Have, and Won’t Have (Katie Wood Ray), including genre characteristics and author’s craft. Students will explore realistic fiction to develop their comprehension through the strategy of Book, Head, Heart (Beers and Probst). Students will determine the roles various characters play in the conflict and resolution of the plot, as well as analyze major and minor character relationships, in order to make inferences about them and provide evidence to support theme. Students will respond to the Fluid Literacy Block. Throughout this unit, you will integrate the instructional practices in the Unit 1 planning guide with the First 25 Days of Reading and the First 25 Days Writing Workshop which will set the foundation for guided reading routines, writing workshop, and practices.
