Unit Overview: In this unit, students will Consume and Critique realistic fiction and Produce (O’Flahavan) personal narratives utilizing the literary elements found in mentor text. As students consume and critique mentor texts, they will notice what this genre Must Have, Might Have, and Won’t Have (Katie Wood Ray), including genre characteristics and author’s craft. Students will explore realistic fiction to develop their comprehension through the strategy of Book, Head, Heart (Beers and Probst). Students will determine the roles various characters play in the conflict and resolution of the plot, as well as analyze major and minor character relationships, in order to make inferences about them and provide evidence to support theme. Students will respond to literary texts through Quickwrites (Rief), which will provide the seeds for composing personal narratives. As students consume texts in the genre, they will Notice and Name (Wood Ray) author’s craft, which they will later apply to their writing. The teacher will model this process by writing alongside the students highlighting their use of nouns, verbs, punctuation, and subject-verb agreement. Foundational Language Skills such as oral language, word study, and vocabulary are embedded in mini-lessons and the Fluid Literacy Block. Throughout this unit, you will integrate the instructional practices in the Unit 1 planning guide with the First 25 Days of Reading and the First 25 Day Writing Workshop which will set the foundation for guided reading routines, writing workshop and practices.

Unit Overview:
In this unit, students will Consume and Critique literary nonfiction and Produce (O’Flahavan) personal narratives utilizing the literary elements and the elements of informational text found in mentor text. As students consume and critique mentor texts, they will notice what this genre Must Have, Might Have, and Won’t Have (Katie Wood Ray), including genre characteristics and author’s craft. Students will explore the genre of Literary Nonfiction which is composed of biographies, autobiographies, and memoirs. While interacting with these texts, students will analyze how authors present major events in a person’s life and identify the literary language used to communicate a message or theme to develop their comprehension through the strategy of Book, Head, Heart (Beers and Probst). Students will respond to literary nonfiction through Quickwrites (Rief), which will provide the seeds for composing personal narratives. As students consume texts in the genre, they will Notice and Name (Wood Ray) author’s craft, which they will later apply to their writing. The teacher will model this process by writing alongside the students highlighting their use of capitalization, prepositions and pronouns. Foundational Language Skills such as oral language, word study, and vocabulary are embedded in mini-lessons and the Fluid Literacy Block.

Ongoing TEKS

Unit 5: Informational Text

Unit Overview: In this genre study, students will Consume, Critique, and Produce (O’Flahavan) informational texts. Students will explore and recognize characteristics and structures of informational text including central idea and features such as sections, tables, graphs, timelines, bullets, numbers, and bold and italicized font to support understanding reading comprehension through the strategy of Book, Head, Heart (Beers and Probst). Students will respond to informational texts through Quickwrites (Rief), which will provide the seeds for composing informational texts. As students consume texts in the genre, they will Notice and Name (Wood Ray) author’s craft, which they will later apply to their writing. As students consume and critique mentor texts, they will notice what this genre Must Have, Might Have, and Won’t Have (Katie Wood Ray), including genre characteristics and author’s craft. Students will apply what they learned from this genre study as they produce their own informational texts. The teacher will model this process by writing alongside the students highlighting their use of adverbs, adjectives and punctuation marks.

Foundational Language Skills such as oral language, word study, and vocabulary are embedded in mini-lessons and the Fluid Literacy Block.

Unit Overview
In this genre study, students will Consume, Critique, and Produce (O’Flahavan) informational texts. Students will explore and recognize characteristics and structures of informational text including central idea and features such as sections, tables, graphs, timelines, bullets, numbers, and bold and italicized font to support understanding reading comprehension through the strategy of Book, Head, Heart (Beers and Probst). Students will respond to informational texts through Quickwrites (Rief), which will provide the seeds for composing informational texts. As students consume texts in the genre, they will Notice and Name (Wood Ray) author’s craft, which they will later apply to their writing. As students consume and critique mentor texts, they will notice what this genre Must Have, Might Have, and Won’t Have (Katie Wood Ray), including genre characteristics and author’s craft. Students will apply what they learned from this genre study as they produce their own informational texts. The teacher will model this process by writing alongside the students highlighting their use of verbs, conjunctions, punctuation, and subjective-verb agreement. Foundational Language Skills such as oral language, word study, and vocabulary are embedded in mini-lessons and the Fluid Literacy Block.
