ELA.7.2.B Use context such as contrast or cause and effect to clarify the meaning of words.
ELA.7.3.A Adjust fluency when reading grade-level text based on the reading purpose.
ELA.7.4.A Self-select text and read independently for a sustained period of time. |

Unit 1: Texts as Mirrors

Unit 1 explores students’ identities as readers and writers and how they can make personal connections to texts. Students examine narrative texts, both fiction and nonfiction, and how texts serve as a mirror to reflect students’ experiences. Students draft personal narratives as they review basic grammar rules.

In addition to addressing the focus standards of the unit, students will engage in daily supported independent reading and low-stakes writing.

- Labor Day Sept. 2
- Fall Holiday (students only) Sept. 9
- Early Dismissal Sept. 27

Texas Essential Knowledge and Skills/Student Expectations (TEKS/SEs)

The student will:

Unit 4: Lights!

Unit 4 features drama and poetry and explores how each of these genres spotlights emotions and moments in time. Students analyze how authors create meaning and convey mood through the use of dramatic conventions, poetic techniques, and fictional elements. Students compose original poems or plays/screenplays focusing on author's craft moves like sentence structure, word choice, and figurative language.

In addition to addressing the focus standards of the unit, students will engage in daily supported independent reading and low-stakes writing.

Cycle 6

Unit 6: Action!

Unit 6 involves investigative research on a career field with a goal of selecting a high school for the following school year. Students utilize research strategies and deliver multimedia presentations to share their learning with peers. This unit also contains a review of STAAR standards in preparation for the reading portion of the test.

In addition to addressing the focus standards of the unit, students will engage in daily supported independent reading and low-stakes writing.
