Texas Application for State Financial Aid July 1, 2021 – June 30, 2022

The Texas Application for State Financial Aid (TASFA) is a free application that collects information to help determine eligibility for state (or institutional) financial aid programs administered by institutions of higher education in the state of Texas. Students classified as Texas residents who are not eligible to apply for federal financial aid using the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) are encouraged to complete the TASFA. To review the FAFSA filing requirements, visit fafsa.gov or contact the financial aid office at the institution you plan to attend for the 2021-22 award year. Note: The federal application covers federal and state financial aid opportunities. If you meet the FAFSA filing requirements, you do not need to complete both the FAFSA and TASFA.

The state financial aid priority application deadline for many institutions of higher education is January 15. If you are considered for the most financial aid that may be available to you, it is important to complete and submit your application to the financial aid office on or before Jan. 15. Note: Texas residency and final eligibility for financial aid are determined by the institution you plan to attend.

To complete this application, answer each item within each section. If a question does not apply to you, refer to the TASFA Notes on pages 6-8. If you have further questions about this form, contact your institution's financial aid office. Institutions have an online version of the TASFA; check with your institution before filling out the form. The TASFA is protected under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974.

TASFA CHECKLIST

Frequently Asked Questions (TASFA):

I have my TASFA completed, my parents' income tax, and a copy of my selective service card, but my college has NOT loaded the 2021-2022 verification worksheet. What should I do?

Go ahead and submit your TASFA application with parents' income tax return and a copy of your selective service card if a male. Keep checking the financial aid websites of the colleges you applied to for the 2021-2022 verification sheet. Once you see it's been uploaded, copy it, complete it, and immediately turn it in.

I've turned in my TASFA and all supporting documents. Now what?

Give your college about two weeks to start processing your application. Log into your student account and check your financial aid status. Your student account is your one-stop-shop for everything. Get to know your classes, communicate via campus email, receive financial aid status updates, and pay for your student account. So take an afternoon and get familiar with it.

If you see no activity in your financial aid account, you should contact the financial aid office. Ask if they have received your TASFA and if they have any questions. Then ask when you can expect your financial aid. Don't be surprised if they tell you in late summer.

The trick is to call every few weeks with questions. Stop by the office as well. Get to know the Texas Grant by name. Tell them your story — why you need the funds and your dream questions. Processing a TASFA requires a little more of their attention than a F.A.A. thinking "Hey, this kid really wants to attend college," they are more likely to remember TASFA from a large stack of them.

Also, document in a notebook every time you make a call or visit. What did you do, what questions were asked, what follow up steps will be needed? Personally, I've had kids march into a financial aid office with long email trails and copious notes about all of their visits to financial aid. These students are more likely to get the Texas Grant.

Why does it take so long for a college to award me the Texas Grant?

First, the State has to process the application. It takes time to tell you that.

Second, a large number of students apply. They have small budgets. Unfortunately, the financial aid office is generally not able to award the Texas Grant to all students.
